

Buxton Announces Dance Committees

Subscription Drive Ends Thursday; Dance Leader Points For Record

Billy Buxton, president of the Cotillion club, today announced the appointment of 39 members of the Cotillion club to dance committees. Bobbie Hobson, James Gardner, Henry Braun, Jack Warner, and Bob Howard are the chairmen of the various committees which include the floor, finance, decorations, arrangements, and invitations committees.

BILLY BUXTON

Cotillion Club Meeting

There will be a meeting of all members of the Cotillion club in Newcomb hall Wednesday night, October fourth, at 7:30. Billy Buxton, president of the Cotillion club, announced today. Buxton stated that this meeting is being called for the purpose of selecting the new men for the Cotillion club. The names of all the new men chosen by the Cotillion club at this meeting will be announced in Friday's issue of The Ring-tum Phi.

Subscriptions are coming along fine. Buxton stated, and it is hoped that a record will be broken for this year's Opening dance's subscriptions. The subscription drive will end Thursday, the dance leader said, and all prices will go up to the eight dollar point after Thursday.

Buxton also announced that he obtained both Ozzie Nelson and Al Donahue at the same price that Paul Whiteman was secured for last year, that is $2500. Two hundred dollars will again be paid for the gymnasium decorations, and the theme for the decorations will follow out the fall colors. Fred L. Lynch of Philadelphia is again in charge of the decorations.

The following are the men appointed to the dance committees:

Floor committee: Chairman Bobbie Hobson, Steve Stephenson, Grover Baldwin, Brent Farber, Buddy Foltz, Cameron Dean, Al Synder, Ernie Woodward.

Finance committee: Chairman James Gardner, Charles Chapman, Horace Sutherland, Reid Brodie, Ed Brown, Frank Nichols, T. K. Helm, Henry Roediger.

Decorations committee: Chairman Henry Braun, Ralph Keehn, Herbert Garges, Joe Edwards, John Campbell, Hugh McFarlane, Charlton Gilbert, Sonny Heartwell.

Arrangements committee: Chairman Jack Warner, John White, Dick Boisseau, Dick Smith, Jack Jones, Bob Hutcherson, Homer Jones, Eddie Wagg.

Invitations committee: Chairman Bob Howard, Jimmy Price, Bill Shannon, Harold Gaddy, Bill Soule, Bob Walker.

Honorary Journalism Fraternity Extends Bids to Fifteen Men

The Washington and Lee chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national honorary journalism fraternity, announced today through its president, Hamilton Hertz, that 15 men had been extended bids to the society.

Those men bid are Bayard Berghaus, Bill Buchanan, Steve Campbell, A. D. Farber, Fred Farrar, Bob Fuller, Matt Griffith, Bill Gwyn, Bill Heartwell, Harry Smith, Bob Steele, Al Fleishman, Latham Thigpen, Ed Trice, and Ken Van de Water.

The new men will meet in their first pledge meeting on Friday evening at the Delta Tau Delta house.

In the past, the journalistic group has been instrumental in the annual Southern Interscholastic Press association meeting held by the Lee school of journalism of the University in November. These meetings are to further the ambitions in the newspaper field of aspiring high school journalists. This year's convention is slated for November 3 and 4. Under the direction of Professor O. W. Riegel, head of the journalism school here, plans for the two-day conclave are rapidly taking shape.

The pledges and members of Sigma Delta Chi will play a large part in the SIPA week-end, their activities including a special issue of The Ring-tum Phi.

Sigma Delta Chi's program for the rest of the year has not yet been formulated, Hertz said. The officers of the group for this year are: Hertz, president; Derrell Dickens, vice-president; Ernest Woodward, secretary; and Ed Roff, treasurer.

Morris Spitz, Jr., Chicago, Illinois, and Jack Hunter, Newtown Center, Massachusetts, were the only University patients in the hospital on Monday. Spitz is under observation, while Hunter is recovering from an appendectomy performed last week.

Homecoming Declared Holiday; Set Short Classes November 10

By BUD LEVY

Declaration of a university holiday for the Saturday of Homecoming week-end has been approved by the faculty, it was announced by Frank J. Gilliam, dean of students.

Plans passed at yesterday's faculty meeting call for cancellation of all classes on Saturday, November 11, and for shortened classes on Friday, November 10, so that a special University assembly may be held that morning.

Concurrent with the announcement of the holiday came that of a Homecoming dance which will be held in Doremus gymnasium on Friday evening of the "big week-end." Plans for the affair are in the hands of Dr. L. J. Desha, chairman of the faculty's social events committee.

The addition of the holiday declaration and dance plans promise to help make the November week-end the biggest Lexington has seen in years. The freshmen's annual pep rally and pajama parade, Friday's assembly, the renewal of the W&L-Virginia rivalry, the dance, and the presence of several hundred alumni will highlight Washington and Lee's part of the week-end.

President Roosevelt is scheduled to be in town to help VMI dedicate its new library as a part of the institution's 100th anniversary program, and on Saturday the cadets will meet Duke in a Wilson field fray.

The faculty also approved November 23 as the date for the University's observance of Thanksgiving in accordance with the revision made by President Roosevelt during the past summer. The new date moves that holiday a week ahead of its customary time.

Also passed at yesterday's meeting was a measure exempting 1940 graduates from the C-average rulings which became effective at the start of the current session. The ruling in question requires that students, in order to graduate, maintain a C-average at Washington and Lee regardless of work taken elsewhere, and is applicable to both transfers and summer school students, and further states that transfers and summer school students must have a full C-average on all work taken elsewhere if it is to be counted towards degree requirements at Washington and Lee.

Moxley Will Replace Shull In 'The Play's The Thing'

School Work Forces Frosh Actor To Leave Troubadour Production

Ken Moxley will replace Laird Shull in the leading role in the Troubadours' production of "The Play's the Thing," Francis Sugrue, president, announced today.

Shull announced that he regretted that he was forced to leave the cast, but that school work had made it impossible for him to spend what he considered the necessary time on his part. In speaking of Shull, Sugrue said that he was one of the best prospects ever to try out for the Troubadours, and that they expected to use him in another play this year.

Moxley, long a veteran in dramatic organizations, has been a member of the group here for three years, and has one of the most important cogs in the machine for all that time. Among the outstanding roles he has had was the part of the condemned man in "Front Page." In the present play, he takes the part of Sandor Turai, middle-aged playwright who writes in "real" life a happy ending that is only more or less successful, depending upon the viewpoint. Turai carries most of the action of the play and Moxley is said to do the part to perfection.

Playing the feminine lead opposite Moxley will be Miss Dolly Burks, who will portray an actress of considerable experience and talent. This role is quite a contrast to her previous parts in "Petrified Forest," "Criminal at Large," and "Squaring the Circle." Her name in this play is Iona Szabo, and her character lives up to the name.

"The Play's the Thing" will probably be presented November first. Among the others in the cast of this Molnar farce are Dolly Burks, Ernest Woodward, Johnny Alnutt, Jim Faulkner, Fred Farrar, and Maurice Bostwick.

Sets as usual will be designed and executed by Moxley, who will also do the direction of the play. Students who have paid their campus tax, as before, will be admitted free to this play.

WDBJ Program Director Will Address Troubs

Mr. Jack Weldon, program director of radio station WDBJ in Roanoke, will address an open meeting of the Troubadours tomorrow night at 8:30 in the journalism classroom.

Francis Sugrue, president of the Troubadours, announced that the program would be open to all persons who are interested in what might be termed the dramatic side of radio. Weldon's talk is expected to be rather technical, but will concern largely the technicalities of broadcasting radio plays. Such matters as sound effects, timing, and radio acting will be considered.

NYA time reports for the first pay period are due in Dean Gilliam's office on Wednesday, October 4.

Brown Names '40 Calyx Staff

Freshmen Urged To Get Pictures Taken

A temporary staff of the Calyx, announced by Editor Ed Brown, has been selected for the first semester of the school year.

Freshman students are urged to have their Calyx pictures taken as soon as possible at Andre studio.

Nine Members of Senate In Florida Are W&L Men

Out of the 40 members of the Florida state senate nine are Washington and Lee men, according to Max M. Brown, '04, who passed through Lexington with Mrs. Brown last week. Brown now resides in Lake City, Florida.

Committee Commends ODK Rally

New School Spirit Is Also Praised In Resolution

The Executive committee in its last regular meeting adopted two resolutions concerning freshman assimilation and the Omicron Delta Kappa campaign for a rejuvenation of Washington and Lee school spirit. Cecil Taylor announced today.

About assimilation, the committee declared that it was resolved "that the present committee should use every means at its disposal and in its discretion for the purpose of expediting the work of freshman assimilation. However, realizing that this cannot be carried out without active support from all upperclassmen, it should be brought before the school that every upperclassman is expected to do his duty in reporting such violations as he may see."

Taylor said that he hoped that this resolution would be seriously considered by the students. "In the past the work of assimilation has been criticized severely, but it has usually been because the committee was not able to get the names of violators," he explained.

Football Rally

Continuing its attempt at re-viving school spirit at Washington and Lee, ODK will sponsor its second pre-game pep rally Friday night in Doremus gym. It was announced this afternoon.

The W&L band and cheerleaders will participate. ODK President Steve Stephenson urged all students to attend.

In connection with the ODK rally held in the gym last Friday, and the organization's plans for the future, the committee resolved "that this committee should and does commend the Omicron Delta Kappa society for the beginning which they have made in a definite and organized program for encouraging Washington and Lee spirit. This committee hopes that this will be carried on not only during our football season, but throughout the rest of the school year. We also commend the student body for the warm response which they have given to the program."

Tucker Proposes New County Plan In Virginia Paper

Writing in the semi-monthly University of Virginia News Letter, Dean Robert H. Tucker of Washington and Lee suggested regional consolidation of county functions as a plan to meet county governmental problems in Virginia.

Such a plan, Dr. Tucker pointed out, would have to be worked out in advance and adopted only after careful study and investigation. His monograph was titled "Governmental Organization and Procedure in Virginia—a Brief Review."

Editor Wilson Gee of the Virginia News Letter styled Dr. Tucker's discussion a "stimulating analysis of one of the most important of the current problems in Virginia."

One Application Made For Athletic Council Post Vacated by Humphrey

One application had been made yesterday for the position of member-at-large of the Athletic council, recently made vacant by Jimmie Humphrey's withdrawal from the University, according to Lou Plummer, secretary of the student body.

Nichols, Guthrie, Litteral, Buck McCutcheon, Foote Are Chosen

Brent Farber, Phi Kap, Dodo Baldwin, Phi Gam, and John Goode, SAE, were chosen to the Executive committee last night in elections that were lackadaisical and hardly a contest in any of the six balloting.

Farber with 72 votes and Baldwin with 67 were elected committeemen-at-large from the senior class on the second ballot after showing clear pluralities on the first. Terry Blandford, ATO, Henry Braun, Kappa Sig, and Gil Gardner, NFU, followed in that order.

Goode defeated Bob Garges, Phi Delt, 144 to 57 in the run-off for freshman committeeman, the former holding a pronounced lead from the initial vote. Other candidates, in order of their first run standings, were Calhoun Bond, non-fraternity, Bill Harrelson, Delt, and W. C. Windsor, SN, tied, and Bill Bevan, SX.

Frank Nichols, Phi Psi, beat Syd Lewis, PEP, for senior academic president after Jack Jones, SN, had been eliminated in the first run. Walt Guthrie, Delt, defeated Andrew Moore, SAE, for vice-president, Kelly Litteral, NFU, was elected secretary over Bob Powers, KA, and Jack Akin, Delt, historian over Jerry Heldman, ZBT.

Don Buck, DU, was elected commerce president, with Tom McCutcheon, Phi Psi, vice-president, Peyton Rice, SX, secretary, and Sam Sublette, non-fraternity, historian, all on the first ballot.

George Foote, KA, beat Lee Ken-na, SX, for president of the freshman law class, Bob Summerall, Pi Phi, was unopposed for vice-president, Ernest Woodward, ATO, was elected secretary over Bill MacBride and Charlie Middelburg, non-fraternity, was unanimously chosen historian.

The four senior science class officers, George Nielson, Delt, Jim Bierer, Kappa Sig, Henry McLaughlin, PIKA, and Casey Lewis, SX, were unopposed for their respective offices of president, vice-president, secretary, and historian.

Open Season For Houseparties Begins with Rainy Week-end

Washington and Lee took over Sewanee, rain took over Washington and Lee, and the houseparties, official and unofficial, took over the rain, the student body, and much of the enrollment of the neighboring girls' schools.

While the worn-down Purple Hurricane of Sewanee was trying to gather its breezes scattered by the Pincks, Bauger, and Co. to use in some future encounter, the gentlemen of Washington and Lee were throwing caution to the wind (and a few other instruments on the side).

Down at the Beta house, the "singers" ushered in the houseparty season and also the 1939-40 edition of the Southern Collegians (minus Charlie Steinhoff) with a bang. "Tis reliably reported that the campus "Glenn Millers" were right in the groove, and that Paul Thomas blew quite a mouthful of trumpet. Apparently the boys are set for another successful season.

Across the street the Sigma Nu's staged an unofficial, impromptu houseparty. It really wasn't a houseparty, but the boys had fun just the same.

And from out Main street way comes rumor of another of the Kappa Sig's famous "teas." This "tea" was such a success that several members of a neighboring night at the Kappa Sig house, fraternity decided to spend the much to the discomfiture of the Kappa Sig.

All in all, it was a very successful week-end, and we still think Ann Sheridan is better than Al Fleishman's opinion of her.

Sunday Program Planned by CC

A deputation team from Mary Baldwin college will put on a vesper program Sunday night at 7:00 in the Student Union, Harry M. Philpott, Christian council director, announced today. Five girls will probably represent the Mary Baldwin council. The W&L group plans to reciprocate by sending a deputation to the girls' school in the near future.

Buzz Lee, chairman of the council's committee on freshman work, announced that the freshman council will hold its first meeting next Tuesday. Lee's announcement was made at a reception for freshmen sponsored by the Christian council last Thursday. Approximately 75 freshmen attended the reception, which followed a freshman meeting in Lee chapel, at which Lee and Dr. James S. Moffatt, Jr., spoke.

ONCE AGAIN WE BROACH AN OLD SUBJECT

A subject which has been banded and bantered back and forth on this campus and in the town of Lexington for lo! these many years is the question of Sunday movies. To be or not to be?

On this subject The Ring-tum Phi has written several reams of good copy paper. Back before the turn of the century we were extolling the virtues of Sunday movies, and as you know, this was back almost before they had any movies. (The Great Train Robbery, 1903.)

We have no intention of starting all this over again unless there is some practical possibility of a somewhat more satisfactory outcome. Our reason for mentioning this old subject at this time is that there is now a more appealing reason for promoting these movies.

In line with this new reason the Intramural board has advocated playing I-M contests on Sunday afternoon. It is the hope of the board that such action will keep more of the student body in Lexington over the week-end and aid in preventing a repetition of the automobile accident which took the life of a student two weeks ago.

The number of students kept in town for intramural participation can at best be small because University athletic facilities are too limited to permit more than two or three contests. Sunday movies, it seems, would serve to keep a much greater percentage of students in their own back yard than any action the Intramural board might take.

The Ring-tum Phi is not going to attempt to go into the moral or religious aspect of the subject. However, it does seem that a man is capable of deciding for himself whether attending motion pictures on the Sabbath is contrary to his religious principles. He is indeed faced with such a decision in nearly every other city in the state; and that regardless of the outmoded Virginia statute prohibiting Sunday theatrical performances. The "Blue Laws" in this state rank on a par with the laws stating how many times a week a man may beat his wife!

However this may be, we are not anxious to burn out any more typewriter ribbons on this matter unless the student body backs us all the way. We invite your comment.

LET'S HAVE MORE PEP RALLIES

Omicron Delta Kappa is certainly to be commended on its rally Friday night. The turnout was large, the cheering vociferous, and the talks good. Probably Cy Young was the best thing on the program, because he is one person that we all know is always one hundred percent for Washington and Lee, and he is always in their fighting.

As most of you will remember, the weather for the game was not the best it might possibly have been. In fact, it was just a bit on the dampish side. Nevertheless, we scored our first points right in the middle of the downpour, and the cheers were as loud as if we had been able to see the play without using a fog light.

Everything has turned out so well so far that we would like to see ODK continue this plan of keeping alive our rejuvenated school spirit. In many schools they have a rally before every game. It does not seem too much to expect the boys to go down to the gym on Friday nights for a few minutes. Somehow or another it seems to put you in the right mood for the game tomorrow, and the aid it is to the team has been discussed here and other places until we are afraid we may be boring you with it.

Whether we have more rallies of this type or not, last Friday's experience proved that they are practicable and popular. Throughout this entire year ODK has a good opportunity to keep the lead in this beneficent promotion. Rallies are only one means to this end, and we are confident that ODK will continue to bolster our rediscovered school spirit.

Again, however, we emphasize that ODK can do nothing by its members solely. It is essential that the student body give their entire and whole-hearted support. Judging by the results of the rally Friday and the score of Saturday's game, we have nothing to fear along this line.

TURN ON THE WATER

There comes a time in the life of every Student Union habitue when he is thirsty. The only present solution to his problem is to crane his neck around the corner of a sink downstairs.

This is not a crusade that should require front page headlines and scare-head posters. It should be very simple, however, and not particularly expensive for whoever attends to such things to have a drinking fountain installed on the first floor of that building.

THE FORUM

The Generals

If we had had the misfortune to flunk out of Princeton we would have selected Washington and Lee as our second choice. While we are thankful to have survived up to the present writing, we realize that there are others less favored by fortune, Root and Gauss, and so with solace toward some we suggest they consider the attraction of this lovely Southern institution (located at Lexington, Va.) N. B. This is no ad, merely propaganda.

First, let it be known that the W&L boys are gentlemen. They prove this to themselves every time they pass fellow students on the campus by greeting them with the unique expression, "Hi, gentlemen," whether they know the gentlemen or not. Furthermore, all the boys wear jackets except when they retire. Now anyone will admit that just these two customs alone are a definite improvement over the manners of us shoddy Princeton bums. Think of how delightful life must be when you don't have to grumble inarticulately if you pass a chap whom you should know by name. It must be a terrific brace to one's ego to have a total stranger address you with a cheerful, "Hi, gentleman." Can't you imagine how pleasant it would be never to see numeral or letter sweaters, or any of those bizarre checked shirts?

As if you weren't already considering transferring to the school of The Generals, let us inform you that the campus is within driving distance of twenty-three schools or colleges for young ladies. And just to encourage pleasant relationships between the boys and girls, the fraternities don't charge you for guest meals!

As a final sales point, we find Princeton's own honor system firmly entrenched at Washington and Lee, much more firmly in fact than here, for they have gone the whole hog down South and the honor system is in practice at all times. This means you can leave things lying around for weeks and nobody will take them. This means that any check will be honored in the town. If one should chance to bounce, so also bounces the poor fellow who signed it. We wonder how such a system would work around Old Nassau. Not only would the Prince lose a lot of revenue from those cute ads (you know, "I'll get wet if I don't get my reversible back, etc."), but Bacon Bunn's clerks wouldn't have the privilege of examining your signature and scrutinizing the watermark of that check for five dollars. — Princeton Tiger.

PERSONAL OPINIONS

For Freshmen Only!

There is an old saying that you get out of life just what you put into it. I think that you will all agree that this is true in many activities, but I feel that in college the idea breaks down. College actually gives you more than you can ever hope to put into it. Each one of the freshmen is receiving "dividends," not just from his own interest and activity, but from the interest and activity of thousands of men who have gone before him. That is the reason why every freshman should enter into college life whole-heartedly. He should do it, in my opinion, not just for the good it will do him but with the thought in mind of the type of school he wants to leave for those who are to follow. The kind of school this will be in the years to come depends upon the way this freshman class accepts its responsibilities.

The Freshmen of This Year Not Respectful of Tradition

I feel, and I know that many other upperclassmen will agree with me, that the freshmen of this year have not and are not showing the proper respect for the many great traditions of this university. It is possible that you are annoyed, because you have heard the word tradition so much. I know I was at first. If you are annoyed, it is because you have not yet seen yourselves as gentlemen of Washington and Lee. Once you become a real part of the school you will learn to love and respect the traditions as most of the upperclassmen do. The way to become a part of the school is to enter into its activities. Enrollment may make you a student here, but you are not a Washington and Lee gentleman until you honor and respect all that Washington and Lee stands for in spirit and tradition.

I think it is logical to say that once you respect the traditions you will not want to see them ignored, and you will do all that you can to see that this does not happen. I admit that there are some upperclassmen here who have failed to catch the spirit. They are members of the student body, but they will never be Washington and Lee gentlemen. They have missed half of what this school can do for them, because they did not choose to enter actively into its program. They are no excuse for lack of spirit on your part. You are out of high school now, and you are college men. Let's see you become true gentlemen of Washington and Lee.

To be more specific, let me point out one or two traditions you should live by. First, there is the Washington and Lee tradition of speaking. "FRESHMEN, SPEAK FIRST!" I say that, because there are some upperclassmen who will walk silently in order to catch you not speaking, but more than that, you are taking your first step to becoming a true Washington and Lee gentleman when you speak first. I know you feel strange. I did too, but saying "hello" is the only way to overcome that feeling, and besides it will make you feel more a part of Washington and Lee.

You have been told already that the freshman cap is worn so that the upperclassmen can learn to know you, but if you aren't very careful, your tongue is a more significant indication that you are a FRESHMAN. There is really no censorship here, but giving loud vent to your personal opinions in public is not looked upon kindly. Very few people are interested in personal opinions, as will be proved if you ask the next person you meet if they have read this column. In the past years these public exhibitions of personal feelings have been called "shining." (Incidentally "shining" is a poor word unless used with care.) Watch where you are and whom you are with before you let out the steam.

It will take very little of your effort to become a real part of Washington and Lee. Your first step as a freshman is to try to live according to the few rules that are set up for you. Don't worry, your individuality will not be lost. Take my word for it, it's worth the effort, but it's your choice. Which would you rather be, a Washington and Lee student, or a Washington and Lee gentleman?

CAMPUS COMMENT ...

By CHARLES MIDEUBURG

Even More Oomph Than Ann Sheridan. . . . The ODK rally held Friday night was deemed a complete success by both Cecil Taylor and Steve Stephenson, organizers of the idea. So encouraged are the two by the turnout and the resultant action that they are considering holding another rally before the Richmond game. The spirit shown at the rally and at the game Saturday was very pleasing to all. The only suggestion or possible change that will be made will be the assignment of a reserved section for the freshmen at the game Saturday afternoon. The football team is thirsting for revenge for the defeat handed them last year in the mud at Richmond. Whole-hearted support by the student body will aid the cause.

New Physical Set-up at "The Sem"

Perhaps it is a little out of this column's line to attempt to influence the student body in their selection of a girls' school for further research, but such an attempt will be made, nevertheless. The school that this columnist has in mind is the much ridiculed Buena Vista paradise, Southern seminary. In former years the faculty was so stringent in the enforcement of the various and sundry rules of the institution that the students who traveled the six miles to Buena Vista frequently returned to Lexington with a feeling of frustration. All this is now changed. The physical set-up (both with regard to buildings and students) has been altered vastly. A new and beautiful class building will be opened October 15 and four new date parlors are available. The enrollment has increased to 158 girls and many states are represented by the bevy of queens. Seniors are allowed one week-night date and all the afternoon dates they wish or can manage. In addition, a Saturday night tag dance is held weekly. The other students are allowed a great many more privileges than they formerly were. There would be even a greater lessening of restrictions at the Seminary if it were not for a very unfortunate happening that occurred there last year. This columnist has been informed that the girls are not in favor of the Wahoons or of the Keydets. This is your chance, boys. Patronize the Sem and save money, time, and at the same time are assured of dates with sweet, congenial girls.

Chivalry Doesn't Pay, Gentlemen. . . .

At last it has been proved that the age of chivalry is not dead and it was due to the efforts of four W&L students that reliable proof can be offered. The setting for our chivalrous drama was one of Lexington's many streets. The principals were four students, a man and a woman, and the time was Saturday night.

The boys were touring the streets of Lexington with no particular purpose in mind when they chanced to notice a dark and sinister looking individual in rapid pursuit of a member of the fairer sex. Immediately, believing that the man had nothing but evil intentions in mind, the boys sprang to the aid of the fair damsel. They proceeded to manhandle the pursuer in a manner befitting a Washington and Lee gentleman and then offered to take the young lady to her destination without further interruption. Although the young lady refused, the boys returned to the abode with the knowledge that they had chivalrously performed their duty. Later they were rudely awakened by the Lexington police force and hauled to the house of detention. After paying a slight (?) fine the boys were released. But their troubles were not at an end. They now face a suit brought by the injured party for assault and battery. It was found that the man and the woman were married! The only conclusion to make is that Fate plays some funny tricks on unsuspecting youth.

Good Samaritans at Woody Clubhouse . . .

The dull and routine life of the Woody Garage apartment crowd last week was disturbed by the invasion of a small urchin from Buena Vista. The young boy was picked up off the streets of Lexington by big-hearted Sam McCorkle and taken to Steve's diner for some of the famous food and informality that is offered there. He was then taken to the apartment and given a cleansing and refreshing bath by all the inmates. A clean and comfortable bed was then provided and the little tot awoke the next morning with a gnawing hunger disturbing him. He was again fed and then sent home. That night the boys were surprised to find the urchin camped at the door. However, anger gave way to generosity when Alnutt, Boyd, Crawford, Torrington, Read, and McCorkle saw the appealing look on the kid's face. They took him in for another night and again sent him home. When he again returned, he was met by the cruel Christian council members who took him to headquarters and had him sent home by the police. The whole episode merely shows that the student body is composed of kind gentlemen on one hand and rank heels on the other. You can make the distinction for yourself.

Cheap Chatter . . .

Truman (Bon-Bon) Donaho sees what Buddy Poltz's costume for the day is and then rushes home and tries to match it. . . . There is much discussion at the Sigma Chi house as to what use Derrell Dickens' astringent was employed last week. . . . Czar Taylor has changed from the Sweet Briar to the Randolph-Macon team. . . . Kit Carson was back last week. . . . We wonder if he has a coaching job in mind. . . . Bob Espy thinks that one of our professors and his wife are social climbers. . . . Brother Barnes suggests that rubber cushions be furnished at all football games. . . . The Kappa Sigs are complaining of another fraternity using their lounge for resting (?). . . . The ticket book idea for student activities and athletic contests is a big bother. . . . For the sake of routine Tennessee scouted Sewanee against W&L. . . . Frank Hynson couldn't find his way home in Washington Saturday night and slept at the little woman's house. . . . Unsung hero of the general team is Jack Mangan. . . . Contrast Richmond's Merrick with the small General center Saturday. . . . The Betas and Phi Deltas have been feuding again. . . . The common green between the two houses is covered by apples. . . . The paring shot is to keep the small town kids out of the gym. . . . Enough has been stolen in the past.

Big Blue Downs Sewanee 9-0; Tilson Begins Heavy Workouts In Preparation For Richmond

Bobby Pinck Crashes Line For Six Points

Washington and Lee's 1939 Generals opened their season here Saturday by pulling the dopsters' whiskers with a clear-cut 9-0 win over Sewanee's invading Purple Tigers.

Coach Tilson's Big Blue team picked up momentum, strangely enough, in a torrential rainstorm during the first quarter, scoring a safety in this period and then marching 65 yards in seven plays for a touchdown a few minutes before the half.

Bobby Pinck, playing his first varsity game for W&L, plunged over from the three for the six-pointer after some canny playing and quarterbacking by Brother Dick had set the stage.

This was only the third varsity game for Dick, a junior hobbled by injury last season, but he performed like a time-tempered veteran. In the scoring drive which he engineered, his running alone accounted for 25 of the 65 yards.

It was a squad victory, for Coach Tilson poured in plenty of reserves at opportune moments, and their showing was impressive. Joe Baugher, sophomore pony back, lived up to his pre-season notices and piled up plenty of yardage with his hard, clever running.

Before the encounter prognostication gave the Generals only 50-50 chances or less of coming through against Sewanee, but the winners' superiority was very pronounced. They pressed the Tigers hard throughout the last part of the game, and might well have scored again in the closing minutes but for a costly penalty.

Shaky Start

The Generals got off to a rather shaky start when Dick Pinck was dropped with the opening kickoff on his own ten. However, Brown punted out to the W&L 40, and in the next three exchanges the Blue forced the Purple back to their own ten-yard stripe.

Rain had begun to fall in sheets, and when Hagler dropped back to punt after two unsuccessful plays he mishandled the wet pigskin and "Duke" Wadlington and Kelley Litteral, W&L right end and tackle, respectively, pulled him down in the end zone for the Generals' first score of the year.

W&L's touchdown movement started a few minutes later, in the second quarter. Two punting exchanges put the ball in the Generals' possession on their own 35, and from this point they drove home in seven plays.

Dick Pinck started it with a dash of 18 yards off tackle to the enemy 47. His pass to Dobbins was incomplete, but Pinck to Pinck (Dick to Bobby) connected for nine, and Dick made four more for a first down on the Purple 34.

Pass Interference

Wadlington was awarded a pass completion when the officials called Sewanee's Johnny Roberts for interference as the Duke was reaching for Dick Pinck's 28-yard toss. With the ball now resting on the six, it remained only for Pinck to slip through right tackle to the three and Bob to finish the job with another line thrust. Dick added the point by again going off right tackle.

W&L had the edge in statistics as well as scoring. The Generals made 129 yards rushing to Sewanee's 30, had 10 first downs to the Tigers' 7, lost 25 yards on 3 penalties to the Purple's 68 on 5, and out-punted their opponents for a 35 to 33 yard average. Both teams punted 11 times.

Sewanee looked better only in passing and fumbling. The Blue backs dropped the ball 6 times to Sewanee's once, and were outgained through the air 22 yards to the Tigers' 73. The visitors completed 4 out of 6 tosses—W&L, 3 out of 9.

Washington Post Jibes At W&L Athletic Policy

Washington and Lee's athletic policy drew lampoons from the sports cartoonist of the Washington Post last Thursday.

Captain Dick, Riley Smith, and Coach Tex Tilson were depicted as balancing their way across a stream, via a log. Waiting below with eager jaws were two alligators, one labeled "Simon Pure," the other "Subsidization."

FOLLOWING THE BIG BLUE

With BAYARD BERGHAUS

They looked good out there Saturday in the mud, those Big Blue ball players did—worlds better than they did a year ago when they opened against Hampden-Sydney and barely scuffled through to a 7-6 victory. The running and blocking was more than adequate, and the defensive work was outstanding for the first game of the season. Sewanee didn't get to first base through the Generals' first line of resistance, as their net gain of minus six yards rushing for the first half stands witness. The only criticism justified from the not-too-zealous observer is that there was perhaps a little too much fumbling, even for all the rain.

"Jumping" Joe Baugher's varsity debut was, speaking conservatively, absolutely satisfactory. Dare anybody dispute that statement? Joe looked like the second-guesser's dream man—always picking just the path that the grandstand quarterbacks wanted him to from their lofty points of vantage in the 14th-row seats and above. Bob Pinck and Pres Brown, also making their first appearance with the varsity, performed their particular backfield duties pleasingly. Bobby's dive across the goal line was especially so.

The 1939 Brigadiers' show on Friday was an encouraging four-ball performance—if not in that it exhibited a smooth-working freshman powerhouse, at least, then, because it gave promise of some mighty good things to come. Not that we're apologizing for the Brigadiers, because apologies just weren't in order after that 12-0 beating of Staunton Military academy. However, with only a few basic plays and little practice on their own account, our yearlings could hardly be expected to look perfectly smooth. The fact remains that they did their job well and raised our hopes for the future considerably while doing it.

Among the first year men who must have brought happy grins to the face Coach Tilson are Ted Ciesla, Tommy Moncrief, "Bull" Socha, and Jack Ligon in the backfield and Paul Skillman, center; Gray, guard; John Rulevich and Lillard Ailor, tackles; and Bob York, end, in the line. Ciesla put on an exhibition of fast, heady ball-carrying, and Moncrief used his speed to tremendous advantage defensively, getting down under kicks usually ahead of the field to cut down the runners with sharp tackles.

To set at rest the rumors that have been flying around since the fourth play of the game Saturday, it is a pleasure to report that Sims Trueheart's injury was not a broken arm but a dislocated elbow. Trainer "Doc" Boyd got right on the job and it is reported that he may have the Generals' ace end patched up in time to get in there against Richmond Saturday—certainly for the Southwestern trip.

Blue Harriers Meet Richmond Here Saturday

What is expected to be Washington and Lee's best cross-country team in years will launch its 1939 campaign Saturday afternoon when it meets the University of Richmond over a three-mile Lexington course. The run is scheduled to get under way at 1 o'clock and will precede the W&L-Richmond football game. The harriers will start and finish on the Wilson field track. The varsity runners' second meet will be staged on October 13 when they invade Charlottesville to stack up against Virginia's squad. Eight days later the Generals will run VPI at Blacksburg. A dual meet with Davidson on October 28 and the State and Southern conference meets will wind up the Blue squad's season.

Captain Mike Crocker heads the 12-man squad which Coach Fletcher is currently whipping into shape for Saturday's inaugural test. Ten freshmen are also working out daily, and will have their first meet on October 27, when Thomas Jefferson high, of Roanoke, invades Lexington.

PEP RALLY
Don't forget the pep rally in the gym Friday night.

Morgan, Brown Noonan Tie In Golf Meet

The Lexington Merchants golf tournament, held Sunday, resulted in a three-way tie for top honors among Earl Morgan, Ed Brown, and freshman Bill Noonan, each shooting a 41.

Rain fell heavily soon after the match started and forced Cy Twombly, coach of the Washington and Lee golf team and director of the tournament, to stop the match after nine holes had been completed.

Dan Wells, another freshman, finished fourth in the field with a 44. He started well, but the inclement weather took a heavier toll on him than on the pace-setters.

Brown and Morgan, who last year ended up fourth and fifth, respectively, were seldom more than two strokes apart all the way out, and it took a late spurt by Noonan to pull himself up to even terms with them.

Generals Meet 'Big Six' Foe Here Saturday

Fresh from a decisive win over Sewanee's supposed juggernaut, the General football team resumed practice yesterday afternoon in a rough hour and a half scrimmage, brushing up on Saturday's mistakes.

Head Coach Tex Tilson was extremely jubilant over his team's opening day success. Rated by Richmond and Washington newspapers as a decided underdog, the Big Blue upset the dope in thumping a none-too-weak Sewanee team. Tilson was especially pleased with the good spirit of the whole team.

The rain curtailed any semblance of a good passing attack on either side, and only straight running plays featured the General offense. The blocking was exceptionally good, although Coach Tilson

Gold-Plated Frosh Meet Strong UVA Team Here

By RAY WHITAKER

Washington and Lee's gold-plated freshman football team will get their first taste of college competition here this Friday when they play host to a highly rated University first-year team on Wilson field. Game time is 3:45.

Coach Dick Fletcher of the Wahoo squad will bring one of the largest, but lightest, teams in Callier history to Lexington with him. One hundred and thirty-one men reported for the Baby Cavaliers' initial practice, and a major portion of them will make the trip. However, the team which gets the starting assignment will not average over 180 pounds.

Meanwhile, Coach Tex Tilson is rounding his charges into shape for what is certain to be their toughest job on the Brigadiers' schedule. The Waholets themselves would be hard enough to handle, but the practice program outlined for the Baby Blue will place them at an even bigger disadvantage.

They were given a draft of Richmond university plays yesterday to use in preparing the varsity for the Spider game here next Saturday. They will run these plays on up through Wednesday, and Thursday will be their only day of rest and concentration for the Virginia clash. Add to this, the fact that the Baby Blue already had a shortage of plays, and their situation becomes even gloomier.

But the main cause of their misery come Friday is liable to be a pair of pint-sized Wahoo backs. Another Gillette is on the Virginia squad, and will probably start in their backfield. He is Turnbull Gillette, brother of that triple-threat all-state back, Jim Gillette. He will be aided in the ball-carrying division by Shad Bryant, one of the best prep backs in the Old Dominion, while he was at Staunton Military academy.

Evidence so far points to a shake-up in the Washington and Lee backfield. Little Tommy Moncrief, who failed to start against Staunton Military academy last Friday, is almost certain to be in the starting backfield against Virginia. Ted Ciesla, who spearheaded the attack which netted the Brigadiers' first score, is fairly certain of a starting role also. Moncrief was especially brilliant on the defense against SMA and should prove a valuable asset as a starter. The rest of the backfield will probably be composed of Wheeler and Socha at halfback and fullback, respectively.

But such men as Ligon and McKenna can not be counted out and will probably see plenty of action. The line will remain intact, but the presence of such men as Hubbard at tackle, Fabian at guard, and Pierson at center will enable the Blue coaching staff to insert frequent substitutes. There still is a battle royal going on for the end positions. The quartet composed of Davies, Parker, East, and York will all play plenty of ball.

KA Faces Stiff Fight To Keep Football Crown

Intramural football at Washington and Lee is again getting underway, with three games scheduled for this week, and others to follow soon.

Delta Upsilon and Sigma Chi played this afternoon to open the 1939 intramural sports calendar, and tomorrow the non-fraternity group is slated to engage the SAE team. On Thursday Delta Tau Delta meets Phi Epsilon Pi to wind up the games for this week.

Other first round pairings, which will be settled, for the most part, next week are: Phi Gams vs. ATO, Lambda Chi vs. SPE, ZBT vs. Phi Kappa Sig, Kappa Alpha vs. Phi Delt, Pi Kappa Alpha vs. Kappa Sig, Phi Psi vs. Beta, and Sigma Nu vs. Pi Kappa Phi.

Last year Kappa Alpha won the intramural football crown, with PIKA as runner-up. This season, both teams again are prominent contenders, but should meet some stiff competition from such teams as Beta, Phi Psi, Sigma Nu and the Phi Gams. Lambda Chi and ATO also boast good aggregations, which seem capable of upsetting the dope.

Intramural tennis tournament pairings will be posted tomorrow, according to Cy Twombly, and the tournament is scheduled to get started on Thursday. Eligibility for the tennis tournament is the same as that for all other intramural sports. No man who has made his letter, or numeral, at W&L, or other university is eligible. Squad members are also ineligible to compete.

'C' Average Requirements Are Altered

Students To Get Credit For First Year Language

Two important changes were adopted by the faculty yesterday as regards transfer of credits from other schools, and the language requirement.

As released today by Registrar Mattingly, the first change provides that the ruling prohibiting transfer of grades below the letter "C" from other schools to Washington and Lee will not apply to those students who are graduating in June, 1940. This means that seniors can transfer grades of "D" that they made in summer school, or before transferring.

The other change provides that "An elementary course in a foreign language taken by a student offering two entrance units in that language may be counted toward the total requirements for graduation, but not toward the requirements in language for any degree."

This applies primarily to students in the Commerce school. If, for example, a student enters with two years of French, he can take first year French over, and it will count toward the total credits needed for graduation; but such student will still have to take two years of French after his freshman year. In former years men were not allowed to count for credit such language courses as were taken over.

There will be a meeting of Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honorary scholastic fraternity, Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Student Union. President Bill Shannon announced today.

Generals To Meet Richmond Eleven

Continued from page three feels that a great deal of work is still necessary, especially on the part of the backfield. Pres Brown was hurried on every kick, and special work will be stressed during this week's practice to iron out this weakness. The practice this week will consist mainly of trying out several new plays, and brushing up on a rather weak pass defense.

Coach Tilson was quite pleased with the work of "Little" Joe Baugher and considered him one of the outstanding men on the field Saturday. Baugher's passing was not up to his par because of a wet football, but his two dazzling running plays of 50 and 20 yards over-shadowed his other gifted talents. Had it not been for a holding penalty, the General would probably have had a second touchdown.

This Saturday's tilt with Richmond will give the General squad a chance to show their prowess. The Richmonders, unfortunately, are taking the Big Blue game as a breather, and naturally Coach Tilson is very desirous of a win. A strenuous practice session is slated for this week with rough work every day, in an effort to get the Blue into shape for the Richmond invasion.

Sims Trueheart sustained a dislocated elbow, X-rays revealed, and it is not probable that he will start the Richmond game. Trueheart was injured in the second quarter, and was the only Big Blue injury of any consequence. Junie Bishop's ankle is healing rapidly, and Coach Tilson is hoping to have him in readiness for the West Virginia game.

Coach Glenn Thistlewaite will probably bring one of the strongest Richmond football teams in years to Lexington this Saturday. With an offense built around Arthur Jones, one of the best backfield men in the South, the Richmonders will present a well-balanced gridiron machine. Sophomore Sonny Wholey, Ned Butcher, and Captain Ed Merrick are a few of the topnotchers who will face the Generals.

W&L Students Own 137 Cars This Year; ATO's Lead with 14

Latest statistics available set the number of student-owned cars on the campus this year at 137, a Ring-tum Phi survey revealed today.

Each fraternity is represented as follows: Alpha Tau Omega, 14; Beta Theta Pi, 8; Delta Tau Delta, 6; Delta Upsilon, 8; Kappa Alpha, 4; Kappa Sigma, 9; Lambda Chi Alpha, 9; Phi Delta Theta, 8; Phi Epsilon Pi, 2; Phi Gamma Delta, 9.

Phi Kappa Psi, 10; Phi Kappa Sigma, 4; Pi Kappa Alpha, 10; Pi Kappa Phi, 4; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 6; Sigma Chi, 4; Sigma Phi Epsilon, 4; Sigma Nu, 8; Zeta Beta Tau, 3; non-fraternity men, 7.

Faculty Awaits Price's Statement On Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving, that great day on which we recount our blessings one by one, will be celebrated on the W&L campus on whatever day the Governor of Virginia says our state will celebrate it. Such was the announcement made by the administration today.

No proclamation has yet been made as to just what Thursday this will be, but Governor Price has intimated in his public statements that November 23 will be the lucky day, thus following the example set by President Roosevelt.

However, if your girls' school celebrates Thanksgiving on November 30, don't blame us. Maybe you'd better just wait until Christmas.

Peace Council Will Hold First Meeting Thursday

The Peace council will hold its first meeting of the year Thursday night at 7:30 in the Student Union lounge, it was announced today by Clinton Van Vliet, chairman of the council. All students interested in discussing the relation of the United States to the present conflict are invited to be present.

The council will function this year as a committee of the Christian council, it was decided at a Christian council meeting last night. Membership in the Christian group is not a requisite, however, for membership in the Peace council.

S and U reports will appear October 16, it was announced today by Earl S. Mattingly, University registrar. These reports indicate to the student whether he is doing satisfactory or unsatisfactory work in his classes. S and U reports are not sent home, but are made out solely for the student. However, any student receiving reports of unsatisfactory work in two subjects will be called to the Dean's office for a conference.

Garfield, Lane Reunited at State; Mr. Moto Takes a Vacation

By AL FLEISHMAN

DUST BE MY DESTINY

It's that Priscilla Lane-John Garfield combination at the State Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday in a picture telling the story of a boy who got off in life on the wrong foot and of his love.

Supported by Alan Hale, Frank McHugh, and Billy Halop, the two young folks do right well with a nice bit of acting. The reason for the whole thing is Garfield's conviction for a crime he didn't commit. After he gets out of jail, he is arrested for vagrancy and sent to a prison farm. There he runs into the foreman's daughter, and their love springs into marriage.

A fight between Garfield and the foreman causes more trouble for the foreman dies of a heart attack during the scrap. Garfield is blamed for the murder, so he and his wife leave by the hitch-hike method. After a long chase, the suspected murderer and his wife are apprehended—then comes their trial. And very dramatically, things come out all right once again. Tsk, tsk.

We like Mr. Garfield for an actor—(Note to Editor—Nothing's the matter with Priscilla Lane).

(Editor's Note—We still want to know what's wrong with Ann Sheridan—oomph.)

UNION PACIFIC

Correction please: "On Borrowed Time," which was supposed to play the Lyric on Wednesday, has been booked for another date. Instead, Wednesday will find a play-back of the story of iron horses and the men who run them, "Union Pacific."

Joel McCrea and Barbara Stanwyck are the top-notchers who lead the large cast of the show. It's quite the thing—and might have been an epic if McCrea had just got hurt once or twice. It gets quite disgusting after he picks himself out of two or three train wrecks without a scratch.

We thought it was fair last year—our opinion stands pat.

MR. MOTO TAKES A VACATION

Offhand, we'd say that the title looks like a good idea, and we're glad to say that Mr. Moto is calling it quits for good after this one (and we don't blame him). This movie will haunt the Lyric on Thursday.

The usual mystery and murder with a few frills hither and yon

Six Juniors Are Named To Editorial Positions

Six juniors were named to the subordinate editorial positions on The Ring-tum Phi today by editor Ernest Woodward.

Bayard Berghaus was selected to serve as sports editor for the forthcoming year. Bill Buchanan will take over the post of copy editor.

The two managing editors will be Bob Steele and Fred Farrar. These two men will alternate, one doing the make-up on the front and back pages, and the next issue on the two inside pages.

Alvin Fleishman is slated to take over the recently-created place of desk editor. Handling the news editorship will be Latham Thigpen.

The band's first marching practice will be held Wednesday afternoon at the gym. All members are urged to be present.
