Perry Unable To Continue As Net Coach

Injured Elbow Causes Star to Forego Duties; Desires to Return Later

Expressing his "sincere regrets" and his desire to return to the school next year, W&L tennis coach Fred Perry today advised the University that he would be unable to resume his coaching duties here this spring, because of the severely bruised elbow which he suffered during the opening night game of his tour last February.

In a letter to President Gaines, Perry stated that "there would be no point in my coming to the University with my arm as it is, as I can't straighten the elbow due to a thickening of the tissues."

Perry, writing from Houston, Texas, where he has been receiving treatments for the irritation, said that he had been forced to withdraw from the exhibitions on March 9 and has had his right arm in a plaster cast since that time.

"I have not written earlier as I did not know the exact extent of the injury and was planning to be well enough to return to Washington and Lee for the spring coaching," Perry said.

"I am very sorry to have to make this decision, as it was the one bright spot in my tennis activities. I can only hope that you will allow me to take up where I left off next season," Perry added.

Keller Succeeds Johnson As Sigma Delta Chi Head; Group Bids Six New Men

Hal Keller, Sigma Nu junior from Spencerville, Md., was unanimously elected president of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity, at the group's meeting in the journalism library Wednesday afternoon. Keller succeeds Marshall Johnson, Lambda Chi senior.

Other officers elected unanimously were K. L. Shirk, Jr., Lambda Chi sophomore from Lancaster, Pa., vice-president, and Al Darby, Pi Kap junior from Martinsburg, W. Va., secretary. Ed Zelnicker, ZBT junior from Mobile, Ala., was elected treasurer over Lillard Ailor.

Departing from its traditional policy of only pledging juniors, the group offered bids to five sophomores and one junior at the meeting. The new policy was inaugurated because of the University's accelerated program, which allows students to complete the college course a year early.

The new men, who will be initiated May 15 preceding a picnic, are Richard Bromley, Phil O'Connell, Wally Clayton, Bill Talbott, Al Cahn and Gordon Sibley.

Seymour Smith, director of religious work, will speak to the Methodist Youth Fellowship on Sunday, April 19th. His topic will be "The Christian Peace to Follow the War." The meeting will begin at 7:00 p.m. Students are cordially invited to attend and join in the discussion which will follow.

IFC Adopts Reorganization Plan, Sets Sing Preliminaries for May 1

A three-point plan for reorganization of the Interfraternity Council was unanimously adopted at a meeting of the group in the Student Union last night.

At the same time, the Council decided upon Friday night, May 1, as the date for the preliminaries for the Interfraternity Sing. The finals of the sing will be held during Final Dances, Stowers said, unless the competing houses find it impossible to have enough members of the glee clubs present at that time, in which case they will be held at a somewhat earlier date.

The reorganization was drawn up and presented by ODK in an effort to make the Council a more powerful organization and to provide for speedier action by the group. Charlie Hobson, president of ODK, presented the plan to the Council.

Under the newly-adopted measure, the Council will be composed of all house presidents and managers instead of the present single elected delegate. New presidents and house managers will thus automatically assume their posts as IFC representatives, providing for the continuous representation of each house on the Council.

The second point of the plan embodies the working out of a new committee organization, which will facilitate the effectiveness of the business of the IFC.

The final point of the plan provides for the selection of a faculty member to act as adviser to the group in its meetings and to aid it in the solution of any problems that may arise. The faculty member will be chosen by the executive committee of the Council in consultation with administrative officials.

John Walter Stowers, president, announced that the officers for next year's council would be chosen by the retiring group in order to assure a certain number of carry-over members. Provision was made for the officers thus chosen to act in a non-voting capacity for their house, providing they do not automatically come under the president-manager representative rule.

Commerce Conclave Here Next Weekend Attracts 55 Delegates

Representatives of the 55 colleges and universities holding membership in the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business will converge upon the W&L campus next weekend for the organization's 24th annual meeting.

At the same time, Beta Gamma Sigma, national commerce and business administration scholarship honor society, will hold its triennial convention in conjunction with the AACSB meeting.

Dr. Gaines will deliver an address of welcome at the first session of the meeting.

The effects of the war upon university training and the means by which schools of commerce and business can make their greatest contribution to the nation's cause will be the principal themes for the three-day convention. Educators from 34 states will attend the conference sessions.

High ranking officials from several government war agencies are scheduled to deliver the meeting's main addresses and to lead panel discussions.

Phi Eta Sigma Bids 15 Honor Freshmen

Fifteen freshmen were issued bids to Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honorary society, at a meeting in the Student Union last night. The society requires that its members make to Honor Roll at the end of the first semester and at mid-semester of the second half.

Those extended bids were R. O. Crockett, Jr., R. S. Irons, P. P. Page, Jr., L. H. Smith, Jr., R. E. Bartlebaugh, D. W. Booth, F. R. Boucher, J. L. Crist, Jr., W. C. Crittenden, J. M. Gunn, Jr., C. M. Johnson, B. M. Kaplan, E. G. Norton, D. H. Smith and F. G. Ware.

Freshmen who failed to make the Honor Roll both times but who obtain a 2.5 average for their entire freshman year will be issued bids next fall.

Calyx to Be Issued in May

The 1942 Calyx will be distributed during the first week in May, according to tentative plans announced today by Editor Cal Bond. Students desiring extra copies should see Bob Wersel, business manager, immediately.

McDowell Goes To Jacksonville For Naval Duty

Charles R. McDowell, W&L law professor, received notice early this week that he had been accepted for duty as a Lieutenant-Commander in the AVS with orders to report for duty at Jacksonville Naval Airport Monday morning.

Mr. McDowell served as a flight instructor during the last war at Pensacola Naval Air Station after receiving preliminary instruction and training at Pensacola and other air stations on the eastern seaboard. He was released as an ensign at Key West Air Station when the war ended.

Prior to replacing Prof. Lewis Tyree, who resigned his post on the W&L law faculty to attend the New Jersey law school fifteen years ago, Mr. McDowell was connected with the law offices of Frank Wideman, former assistant attorney general of the United States, at West Palm Beach, Fla.

A native of Danville, Kentucky, Mr. McDowell attended Centre College where he earned his AB degree and served as a varsity coach for the basketball and track teams of that school. He was also assistant football coach. Prof. McDowell was a member of the SAE social fraternity. He also holds an MA degree from Columbia University and an LLB from the Yale University Law School.

Mr. McDowell's family will continue to reside in Lexington, for the time being, where his wife is associated with the W&L Alumni Office. He plans to leave Lexington for Jacksonville Sunday.

Lyman Unable to Play For Saturday Dances; Ayres Is Possibility

Board Authorizes Set President Gage To Sign Collegians

An unforeseen hitch in plans for the Spring Dance set beginning tonight has made it virtually certain that Abe Lyman and his orchestra will not be able to reach Lexington for tomorrow's tea dance and Cotillion Club formal.

At the time the Ring-tum Phi went to press late this afternoon, Bob Gage, president of the set, said that he was still working on a very slim possibility of obtaining Mitchell Ayres and his orchestra for tomorrow's dances.

However, this afternoon the University Dance Board authorized Gage to employ the services of the Southern Collegians, in the event that he was unable to obtain either of the other orchestras. The Board stated that it believed the students would prefer the Collegians to a smaller type band which might be obtained from Richmond or other vicinities in the state.

Gage learned yesterday that due to war priorities, Lyman's band was unable to obtain a bus to bring the group from Philadelphia, where he is playing tonight. At the same time, due to extremely heavy traffic, it was impossible to make train reservations. Gage said that every possible effort, even as far as getting in touch with the heads of the railroad companies, had been made, but that it was impossible to avoid the situation.

The agency in New York today told Gage by phone that there was a possibility of obtaining Ayres, who, however, is due to open an engagement in New York tomorrow night. The agency said that there was a very slim possibility of being able to forego his contract for that engagement in order to stop in Lexington tomorrow night.

Gage said that he desired to make a personal apology to the student body for this unexpected turn of events, but the fact that they took place in the past 48 hours made it almost impossible to make any other arrangements. All means of rearranging the schedule were completely exhausted at this time, he added.

Tomorrow night's Cotillion figure will begin promptly at 10:15, and all members who wish to receive favors must be in the figure. Bob Gage, president of the club, said today.

The "13" Club formal will open the set tonight in the gymnasium at 10 o'clock, with music by Barry McKinley and his orchestra. The figure will be led by Charlie Didier, president of the group and Miss Mary Desha of Lexington.

Over 300 girls began arriving in Lexington late yesterday and early today for the two-day weekend. Topping the date lists by houses are the Kappa Sigs and

Opportunity Knocks

Freshmen and sophomores now enrolled in Washington and Lee and those boys who enter as freshmen next session are overlooking an excellent opportunity to serve the nation and, at the same time, insure the completion of at least half—and probably all—of their work toward a degree if they do not give thoughtful and serious consideration to the Navy's new V-1 Training Program.

Supplanting the Navy's V-7 and V-5 voluntary enlistment programs, the V-1 service, which was adopted last week by the administration, will enroll 80,000 boys in the first and second years of college. On the completion of approximately one and a half years of college work, these volunteer enlisted men will be given an examination—physical and mental—to determine in what branch of the naval service they will be placed.

Fifteen thousand will then be transferred to V-5, the naval air pilot training section, and at the end of their sophomore year will enter this service. Twenty thousand will be selected for V-7 and upon graduation from college will go into training for duty as either engineering or deck officers with an ensign's commission insured upon successful completion of the three-months' course.

The remainder of the enrollees will go into service with the Navy as apprentice seamen after completing two calendar years of college, and their superior training will very likely make it easier for them to rise high in the ranks of non-commissioned officers.

Since particular emphasis is made by the Navy on science and mathematics courses as a background, the University has altered its requirements for freshman work to permit boys in this program to better qualify themselves for the naval service.

The program then has this to offer: certain completion of two years of college for all who enlist, commissions for nearly half of those who enlist, degrees for those who make the V-7 class, invaluable technical training both while in school and while in the service, and, what is most important, an opportunity to serve—and serve well—your country. It is worth looking into.—J. F. E.

Dances and the War

Today's news concerning last minute changes in the plans for the Spring Dance set which begins tonight should not bring loud cries of inefficiency from the members of the student body.

The shifts were unavoidable. Those connected with the progress of the set have done everything in their power to make the weekend successful, but the conditions under which they were working must not be forgotten.

Strange and distant as it may seem, the war has wrought this havoc on the dance set. The band which was signed was not able to obtain a bus due to the priority lists in that field of transportation. Soldiers are being moved in this section of the country, and railroad officials said that they would have to have at least two weeks notice to make reservations for the group the size of an orchestra.

Gradually the University, like the nation, is learning the trials and tribulations of a war-time country.

The instance of the Spring Dance mix-up is just one of a long series of such incidents which lie ahead. The thing now needed is not criticism, but adjustment to the changing conditions of the time.—E. A. Z.

New Approach Angle: Some guys spend all their time figuring out new lines to use on the women. These guys are believed by psychologists to be using these novel approaches as defense mechanisms, which cover up inferiority complexes. One of these birds is weight-lifting Grey Flowers of the Phi Kap crew, or "Barbell Benny," as he's known in Vicksburg.

Flowers' newest approach is a killer. So far it has shafted him four times, but he's still optimistic. On getting a date Flowers now proceeds to lure the jane away from the crowd by vivid word pictures of how nice a walk would be. When they get out along a shady lane Grey starts his ultra-smooth "Back to Nature" angle.

"Beautiful, unlike most people. I get a big thrill out of good old Mother Nature. To me the woodlands are enchanted, and I can imagine little elves skipping to and fro among the grasses—"

"Grey, old horse," she replies, "those aren't elves, they're just ants."

Wincing inwardly, Flowers starts again, gets thwarted again, and so on throughout the date. Never has Flowers had another date with a girl on whom he has applied the "Back to Nature" stuff. They all either tell him to go to hell, send him a membership application blank for the Audubon Society or give him four bits to buy a butterfly net.

Around and About: The fickle spring is really here, and the girls schools are firing the curve balls at W&L left and right. Leading the pack is Baldwin with a record of 8 and none... Bill Noonan is a very lucky golfer. We just hope that none of our opponents look in the cup and find it magnetized to attract Bill's metallic pellets.

Bobo (I hit .486 at Haddonfield High) Cavanna wants his name put in. Bob Cavanna as yet has done nothing to merit having Bob Cavanna's name put in here, but we're always glad to oblige good of Bob Cavanna... Farewell party at El Patio on Wednesday night for Larry Bradford, who departed the same night for parts unknown... Cliff Hood may be seen with Missy Alexander this weekend.

Election parties were very pleasant. The following was heard being told Bill McKelway by an older, more-experienced Delt. "Go on, Mac, get a beer and then mingle. I don't care if you don't like beer, get a bottle anyway. You gotta be one of the boys to win an election... Ask Cal Bond."

Cuttino spent the night belting people on top of the head, informing them that they had just been tapped for ODQ... Bright boy in VPI's paper says he notices that W&L is starting lacrosse. Guess it took the news several years to travel down to the farm.

We're now going to take a try at verse. Lord knows, it's no good, but it's the sentiment that counts:

Don't wanta be a dentist,
And make the kids teeth hurt
Don't want be an engineer
With a face all full of dirt,
Don't wanta be a fisherman,
Couldn't stand the smell
Don't wanta be a preacher,
Saying, "Please steer clear of hell."
Don't wanta be a drunkard
Just lying on a bar,
But I'd rather be 'bout anything
Than a danged old Registrar!...

Drowsily "The Shanghai Gesture" crept into the State yesterday and creeps out just as sleepily tonight. After wading through the introduction we found that Gene Tierney was supposed to be the star. She would have been if she hadn't said anything.

Victor Mature (pronounced with an N) managed to lounge around with anything he could find, including Tierney. Walter Houston gave the best performance, and after two hours we still don't know if he was the villain or not. It was strictly an artistic picture with the music following everybody's expression and the camera floating all over everywhere.

It says here that Saturday at the State is "The Men in Her Life" with Loretta Young and others who comprise the "men."

The plot here delves into the ballet and emerges with a carriage ride, a slap in the face and a little child, according to the previews.

The Hardy family sets up housekeeping Monday through Wednesday at the State. "The Courtship of Andy Hardy" deals with almost everything except the courtship of Mickey Rooney and Ann Rutherford and Donna Reed.

All the other old Hardy's are back with us and each of them has a major problem, so the Judge has to have a man-to-man talk to Andy, a heart-to-heart talk to Marian (Cecilia Parker) and a down-to-earth talk to Mother.

General Nine Seek Wins In Indian, Richmond Tilts

Squad Attempts to Keep Leadership in 'Big Six'

Washington and Lee's varsity baseball team will attempt to knock William and Mary, the 1941 champions, from the "Big Six" baseball race in Williamsburg tomorrow afternoon in the second game of their current trip into eastern Virginia.

The Generals were scheduled to meet Coach Mac Pitt's strong Richmond nine on the UR diamond this afternoon in their third "Big Six" test of the season. As the result of a victory and a tie with Virginia in two earlier games, the Blue nine was bracketed at the top of the "Big Six" baseball standings.

A leg injury which has forced Ted Ciesla, the Generals' consistent third baseman, out of action for the weekend has made it necessary for Cap'n Dick Smith, the Blue coach, to revise his lineup.

When questioned yesterday, Smith said he probably would shift Carl Johnson from center field to third and would bring either sophomore Bill Van Buren or Captain Pres Brown into the vacated outfield post.

The varsity nine's coach was undecided about his starting hurlers on the present trip, but indications were that he was to start

Brown this afternoon and Bud Cook, the sophomore who has pitched 13 of the 15 innings this season tomorrow.

Except for the change necessitated by Ciesla's mishap, the W&L line-up was scheduled to remain intact. Jim Wheeler, who got two of the eight hits at Charlottesville Monday, was slated to hold down the catcher's post; Bob Cavanna, another two-hit man, will be at first; Schneider will play at second providing he is not called on to pitch; and Harry Baugher will again play at shortstop. In the outfield the Blue will again have George Eshelman and Paul Cavaliere, along with Johnson's replacement.

Richmond has defeated VMI but lost to the Naval Training Station, with Bob Feller on the mound, and Virginia in other tilts. The Indians have lost to Virginia Tech, 9-5, and were scheduled to meet Virginia yesterday afternoon.

300 Enter I-M Track Meet As 72 Seek Golfing Crown

About 300 track entries have been received for the annual intramural meet scheduled for next Wednesday and Thursday, while 72 have signed up for the student golf tourney beginning Monday, April 27, according to figures released today by Cy Twombly, intramural director.

Eight Win I-M Baseball Games As ZBTs Knock Out ATOs 5-3

The most startling upset of the 1942 intramural baseball season occurred yesterday afternoon as the ZBTs beat the ATOs by a 5-3 score. In another game yesterday, the Betas nosed out the Sigma Nus, 7-5, in a long 10-inning battle.

Because of the loss by the ATOs, 1941 winners, a new champion is assured for the present campaign. The ZBTs cinched the victory with two runs in the sixth and the ATOs' single run in the seventh was not sufficient. Bob Loeb, ZBT, and Jim Evans, ATO, hurled exceptionally fine ball. Don Johnston, ATO, hit a home run with one man aboard.

Two costly errors by the Sigma Nu team in the top of the tenth inning allowed two unearned Beta runs and broke up a pretty pitching duel between Marshall Steves, Sigma Nu, and Hank Woods, Beta. The Sigma Nus scored four times in the second and then, with two outs, pushed across the tying run in the last of the seventh.

The DUs beat Sigma Chi, 23-14, Monday in a wild-hitting affair. The winners biggest inning was the second when they pushed across seven tallies. Five markers were scored by the Sigma Chis in the third.

In another game Monday, the Pi Kaps trounced the Deltas, 14-8. Both teams had several errors as Corbin and Laughlin pitched for the Deltas and Phi Kaps, respectively.

The KAs downed the Phi Psis, 7-5, and the SAEs nosed out the Phi Gams, 17-16, in Tuesday's games. The KAs tallied all their runs in the first three innings and then coasted to a victory as their Tom Ford and the Phi Psis' Bill Babcock battled it out on the mound. Babcock also had a home run with the bases empty.

A single by Hugh Verano, Phi Gam, with two men on base, in the top of the sixth, tied the score of the SAE-Phi Gam tilt at 16-all, but Judge Rhea came back in the last of the same inning with the game-winning single. Ellis Work then held the Phi Gams scoreless in the seventh.

The PiKAs scored three runs in the last of the sixth to cinch their 7-3 win over the PEPs in a game on Wednesday. The Phi Kaps also beat the Phi Deltas, 13-6, in another Wednesday battle. The winners bunched their scoring into four innings, with the fourth producing the winning run.

Netmen Topped By Virginia, 5-4; Play H-S Today

After dropping a thrilling 5-4 match to Virginia on the Charlottesville courts Wednesday afternoon, Washington and Lee's varsity netmen attempted to pounce into the win column this afternoon against Hampden-Sydney on the local courts.

It was the third doubles match that decided the Wahoo encounter Wednesday, as W&L's Jack Barrie and Ralph Taggart were nosed out 3-6, 7-5, 3-6.

The Blue netters had split even in the fast singles competition with wins in the first three dual matches. Barrie led off with a close 2-6, 6-3, 7-5 decision over Posnick, Virginia No. 1 man. Jack McCormick, impressive W&L sophomore, followed with a hard-earned 6-0, 0-6, 6-4 over Goldberg, whom he lost to last year as a freshman.

Dick Spindle turned a brilliant 6-3, 6-2 win over Levering, UVa, in the third position, but Taggart, and Sophs Bill Allison and Clancy Ballenger were nosed out in the remaining three singles to put the teams even going into the doubles competition.

While Barrie and Taggart were playing their prolonged match in the No. 1 doubles spot, McCormick and Spindle teamed well in beating Virginia's Stewart and Levering, 6-3, 6-3, but Ballenger and Allison lost to Shay and Woodbridge, 0-6, 1-6, to make the running score four-all as the first doubles encounter went into the third set. The Virginians outstroked the Generals by a 6-3 margin in that deciding set to emerge victors, 5-4.

The Blue racketwielders were favored to notch their first win of the season over the H-S squad this afternoon. W&L meets Virginia later this spring on the local courts.

Golfers Overwhelm Citadel, Meet Apprentice Monday

After displaying brilliant form in downing The Citadel on the local links Wednesday afternoon, 16 1-2 to 1 1-2, Cy Twombly's varsity stokers today were sharpening their irons for their encounter here with the Apprentice School on Monday.

The Newport News squad, with virtually all of last year's members on hand for this season's play, should furnish close competition for the Generals. The teams tied last year over the same course.

The Citadel engagement saw Captain Bill Noonan leading the Blue devotees with a 71, while S. L. Kopald posted a 74, Gordon Sibley a 77 and Felix Smart a 78.

Noonan bested his rival, Tom Jenkins, 2 1-2 to 1-2, and Sibley overcame the Citadel's Bob Martin, 3-0. The best ball of this foursome went to the victors.

Kopald and Smart both white-washed their opponents by a margin of 3-0. The former vanquished Tim Street, while Smart topped Adrian McManus by three shots, with W&L also taking the best ball in this foursome by an edge.

The losers had defeated VMI on the preceding day, 10 1-2 to 7 1-2, and in one of their previous matches had lost to a powerful North Carolina four by a less decisive margin than their defeat Wednesday by the Blue, which establishes the Generals as one of the favorites to capture the Southern Conference crown.

The Generals will entertain William and Mary here next Friday, and VPI the following Tuesday, with Virginia acting as hosts to the locals the day after.

Trackmen Will Face Spiders Tomorrow

Climaxing a month of hard practice, Washington and Lee's varsity and freshmen runners will open their spring track season tomorrow when they meet the University of Richmond varsity and frosh thinclads at two o'clock on Wilson Field.

The Spiders are bringing a strong aggregation of stars to test the Generals in their opening meet, and indications are that they will rule favorites in both varsity and freshman competition. John Griffin, who consistently is victorious in the weight events, and Gwathmey, a distance threat, are two of the visitors who will bear watching.

The local cindermen will be counting heavily on the point-getting performances of Chuck Wooters, dashman; Bud Yeomans, hurdler, and Hank Woods and Lillard Allor in the weights.

The freshmen will be headed by Pete Figgatt in the sprints and broad jump. Chip Miller is entered in both hurdles and the pole vault, while Ellis Moore, in the 880, and Ray Prater, in the mile, are also counted on for points.

The field events will get underway at two o'clock following at two-thirty by the first running attraction.

20 New Inductees Listed In Navy, Army, Marines

More than 20 students have left school within the past month to join the nation's armed forces, according to a recent survey of fraternity houses and eating places. Four members of V-5, Naval Air Corps Reserve, were among those leaving school to begin training.

Floyd McKenna and Frank Upchurch, both ATOs, are now in the Army Air Corps. Jack Peacock, Phi Psi, is an Air Corps photographer and Clinton Van Vliet, DU, is undergoing training at an Air Corps ground school.

Luther Jordan, KA, who held a reserve commission as second lieutenant in the Marines, has been inducted, and two other KAs, Bill Hopkins and Soupy Campbell, will leave soon to enter that branch of the service, as will Carter Refo, SAE. Bob Schultz, Beta, recently withdrew from school to enter the Marine Corps also.

Bob Hobson, PIKA, was called into the Naval Reserve Corps two weeks ago.

Dick Duchossois, SAE, has entered the Army as a second lieutenant and Henry Baker, Phi Delt, and Jack Harter, Phi Psi, also recently entered the Army with commissions, while Larry Bradford, SAE, and Tom Ballard, Sigma Chi, will be inducted next week. Stan Goldstein, PEP president, is now at home awaiting his draft call.

Handbook Editor Needed

Those students who are interested in serving as editor of the freshman handbook next year must hand in their applications for the position to Seymour Smith in the Christian Council office of the Student Union on or before April 24.

Literary Societies Issue Membership Bids to 17

Graham-Lee and Washington Literary societies have issued membership bids to the most promising freshmen of the Forensic Union. Bill Noonan, president of the Washington society, announced today.

The bids will be sent through the mails to those freshmen who have been chosen from a group of 17 men who attended the joint smoker last week. Those who received the bids will make their choice of the two by dropping the name of their first preference in a box at the Student Union.

Noonan said that the formal pledging and initiations will probably take place next week.

Zombro, Vaughan, Seal Named to NFU Offices

John E. (Zeke) Zombro, of Boyce, Va., was elected president of the Non-Fraternity Union at a meeting held in the Student Union lounge Wednesday night. Zombro, a junior commerce student, succeeds Dan C. Lewis. Other officers elected were Bobby Vaughan, of South Boston, vice-president and Bobby Seal, of Lexington, secretary.
