Wakefield, '41 Gets Award For Training

Five Other W&L Alumni Get Ensign Commissions From Northwestern

Ensign Benton McMillin Wakefield, Jr., former Washington and Lee student, today carried a memorial sword awarded him because he stood highest in general excellence in a Naval Reserve Training class of 800 which received their commissions at Northwestern University last weekend. The memorial sword was donated by the parents of an earlier graduate of the school who was killed at Pearl Harbor, with the understanding that it would go to the top-ranking member of this year's class.

A native of Jackson, Miss., Wakefield is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, ODK, and SAE social fraternity, having been graduated here last June.

In Wakefield's graduating class at Northwestern were five other former W&L students who have been given the same naval rank. They were:

Lester Layne Dillard, South Boston, Va., a member of Pi Kappa Alpha, who left school in January after a year at W&L and four years previous at Hampden-Sydney.

Albert Atlee Radcliffe, Jr., Frederick, Md., who was graduated in the class of 1937.

Henry Thomas Martin, Jr., Roanoke, Va., who received his diploma from the University last June, a member of Delta Tau Delta.

Gordon von Kalinowski, New Orleans, La., a member of last year's graduating class, Delta Tau Delta, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Carlton Lee Byrd, Mears, Va., who attended W&L from 1934 to 1938.

From headquarters of the Gulf Coast Air Force training center, today came the report that Lieut. Thomas N. Tenant, of Hammond, Ind., who was graduated from W&L in 1939 with an A.B. degree, has received his war wings and is now ready for fighter-pilot duty abroad.

Stationed in the same area is Henry C. Peeples, W&L graduate and member of Phi Kappa Sigma social fraternity, who this week reported for intermediate flight instruction at Greenville, Mass., according to an army dispatch received here this morning. Peeples is slated to report sometime later for final flight instruction, at the successful completion of which he will receive his wings and a Second Lieutenant's commission.

Watkin Will Appear Here For Naval Supply Corps

Lieutenant L. E. Watkin will be on the campus Wednesday morning, May 20, in the interest of interviewing men, particularly juniors and seniors, who are interested in the Naval Supply Corps. Lieutenant Watkin advises that the recently placed ban on acceptance of more men for the Supply Corps of the United States Naval Reserve has been lifted and the Navy is anxious to recruit a number of desirable candidates.

Goode, Taylor Named To Dance Board Posts

John Goode, president of this year's junior class, was named president of the Washington and Lee Dance Board at its last regular meeting Friday afternoon. Goode was leader of the 1942 Junior Prom during Fancy Dress in February.

Bob Taylor, president of next year's junior class, was elected secretary of the group.

The Financial report of the 1942 Spring Dance Set was presented to the board by Cotillion Club President Bob Gage and approved. The statement will be made public, along with those of other campus activities, in the Student Body Financial Report to be published next fall, Sam Rayder stated.

Magazine Issue For Final Dances Judged Best Yet

Explaining that he thought the last issue of the Southern Collegian would be the best issue ever published at Washington and Lee, C. Thomas Fuller, retiring editor of the publication, disclosed today that the magazine would be ready for distribution before the Finals Dance.

With probably more cuts than the campus magazine has ever carried, the Collegian will feature pictures of the victory bazaar taken by Bill Latz. The results of the annual popularity questionnaire will be printed in verse, while caricatures and the tri-color cover were sketched by Johnny Preston.

Tom Fuller, Walt Browder, Ray McGill and Bob Schellenberg of the regular staff have contributed stories. Bob Irons, Marvin Finkenstein and Bob MacCachran will have their first stories published in the current issue.

Also slated to attain a wide interest around the school is the tribute to the girls' schools written by members of the staff. The tribute will be followed with an anonymous letter from Sweetbriar. Bob Boatwright has contributed another full page sketch.

In completing his last copy of the Southern Collegian, Fuller expressed hope that the publication had been made such a magazine that it has reached the entire student body.

12 Medical Schools Accept W&L Pre-Med Students

Nineteen W&L pre-med students have been accepted in 12 different graduate medical schools and are scheduled to begin advanced medical study this summer, Mike Lau, president of Societas Praemedica said today.

Students accepted by the various schools are as follows:

Medical College of Virginia—Jim Davidson, Ramon Suarez, Scott Gilmer, and Phil Wilhite; Duke—Hugh McCulloch and Bob Pinck; Yale—Mike Lau and Chad Johnson; Tulane—Henry Yonge and Carroll Herron; Washington University (St. Louis)—Morris Atwood and Andy Lanier; Cincinnati—Bob Leake; Northwestern—Bill Jasper; Pennsylvania—Bob Boatwright; Boston U.—Al Wolfe; Cornell—George Parton; Johns Hopkins—Ed Fountain; Oglethorpe—Sid Isenberg.

16 Dorm Councilors Announced for '42-43 By Faculty Group

In announcing the 16 freshman dormitory councilors for the regular 1942-1943 session, the faculty committee announced that students were chosen who definitely will attend the whole session rather than leave in January, 1943. The list includes a majority of rising juniors and sophomores.

The complete group includes Earl Alverson, Paul Baker, Jr., Fred Bauer, Bob Crockett, Dave Embry, Bill Guthrie, Charles Johnson, Houston Kimbrough, Charles Rast, Richard Rockwell, I. V. Runyan, Bill Van Buren, Walter van Gelder, Bobby Vaughn, William Wilcox and John Zombro.

The change in policy, taken because of "the desirability of having a reasonably long tenure of office" and calling for a number of rising sophomores in the group, will insure a reasonable number of councilors who will return in September, 1943, with a year of councilor experience.

Councilors for the summer session will be chosen from the present session's councilors who will return for the summer session.

Distribute Gowns Sunday

Caps and gowns will be distributed to seniors at the Student Union building from 9 to 11 o'clock Sunday morning before the Baccalaureate Service. All IOUs must be paid by this time, Howard Dobbins announced today. Seniors will keep the robes and return them to the Student Union immediately following the close of the Commencement Exercises, May 26.

Lieutenant Whelchell Outlines Navy Program for Students

After Lieutenant David Whelchell, representative of the Navy's new V-1 accredited college program, had warned yesterday that the draft age would almost assuredly be lowered to 18 by next fall at the latest, indications were strong here early today that W&L

For all students interested in enlisting in the Navy under the V-1 program, Chief Specialist Sterling Chambers, of the Lynchburg recruiting station, announced yesterday that the office there would be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on weekdays and from 8 a.m. until 1 p.m. on Sundays. Other offices are located at Roanoke and Staunton, while the state's central station is in Richmond.

freshmen and sophomores might form a steady stream between the school and neighboring recruiting stations this summer to enlist under the deferred status plan.

Outlining the basic points of the V-1 program in an address at a compulsory assembly in Lee Chapel yesterday afternoon and answering a volley of questions for two hours afterwards and again this morning in Washington Chapel, Lieut. Whelchell told students that sooner or later—prob-

Glee Club to Present Concert at Senior Ball

Winners of Scholarships To be Announced May 25; Direct Grants to be Made

Several thousand dollars worth of loans, direct grants and endowed scholarships are to be given to students whose names will be announced during the Commencement exercises May 25, it was disclosed today.

Three endowed scholarships—the William A. Glasgow, Jr., the J. Shirley Riley, and the Alfred I duPont Memorial—were added last year to bring the total to 23, besides grants and loans made by the University.

The endowed scholarships are awarded to students in general by the faculty committee on scholarships. Direct grants are also offered by the University on authorization by the Board of Trustees and by the committee on student aid.

The following regulations apply to both types of scholarships:

1. No student is permitted to hold more than one scholarship during any one term.

2. An average of C is required for University students, and incoming freshmen must be in the upper half of their class.

3. Scholarships are payable as reduction of tuition; one half for the first term, the other half, the second term.

4. Scholarships of direct grant are awarded only upon application of the student himself.

Complete information about these grants may be found in the current Washington and Lee catalogue.

Dunson Says Plans Nearing Completion

Washington and Lee's Championship Glee Club will present a short concert during the Senior-Interfraternity Ball on the first night of the Finals Dances. Set President Brad Dunson said today in announcing that all arrangements for the dances were near completion.

This new addition to the two-day Finals program has been made in order to give the students and alumni at the dances an opportunity to hear the Glee

Dunson emphasized today that all students in the Final Ball figure must wear full dress and that all girls must be in all white dresses and red evening slippers. Any students or dates not conforming to these regulations will not be allowed to walk in the figure. This does not apply to the Senior and Interfraternity Figures.

Club, which will leave on May 27 for New York City to compete in the national finals of the Fred Waring Collegiate Glee Club Contest. Last week the club was announced winner of the southern mid-Atlantic states regional award. The concert will begin at 11 o'clock on Monday night immediately before the Senior figure and will consist of numbers to be used by the group in the national sing.

The Senior Figure will begin at 11:30 o'clock at the north end of the dance floor in Doremus Gymnasium. Approximately 60 graduating seniors will walk in the figure, which will be led by Senior Class President Bill Scott and Miss Roberta Billups of Mary Baldwin College. Copies of the 1942 Calyx bound in white leather will be the favors.

Following the midnight intermission, the Interfraternity Figure will be led by IFC President John Walter Stowers and Miss Martha Bowman of Hollins College. Three students from each of the 18 social fraternities will walk.

On Tuesday afternoon, Hal McIntyre and his orchestra, who have been signed for the entire set, will swing out at the Phi Delta Theta Concert and Dansant, which will begin at 4 o'clock. Commencement Exercises will be held on the front campus at 7 o'clock that evening.

The "dark 'til dawn" Final Ball will begin at 11 o'clock Tuesday night and will end with the traditional singing of "College Friendships" at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning. Finals President Dunson and Miss Elizabeth Lehman, both of La Grange, Georgia, will lead the Final Figure in which 55 students, selected by the Finals Week Committee, will walk.

Practice for this figure will be held on Monday afternoon in the gymnasium, Dunson stated. It is not necessary that dates be there for the practice.

Students who purchased block tickets in advance may get them at the Student Body Treasurer's office from Saturday through Monday afternoon.

The Summing Up

As the 1941-1942 session speeds to a close in a burst of "accelerated" examinations, it seems an excellent time to throw a hasty glance backward over the past year and recall some of the things, both good and bad, which have from time to time been spotlighted by campus interest.

We've Liked . . .

The way the administration and students have risen to meet the problems of wartime and the way all phases of campus life and all branches of University curriculum have been speedily and efficiently adjusted to make the greatest contribution to the national victory effort and, at the same time, to preserve the cloistered and academic atmosphere in which students can best prepare themselves for the life and problems of the post-war era.

The interest shown by the students in campus politics as evidenced by the large vote turnout in all elections and the capable men they have chosen to fill the important campus posts.

The excellent dances staged by all set leaders under trying conditions.

The life which has been instilled into "The Southern Collegian" in its past three issues.

The good leadership which this year's Executive Committee and Student Body President have given us. The way in which they have tackled all problems and the way in which they have preserved and forwarded our most important traditions of honor and good behavior.

The way in which our under-rated athletic teams have fought to keep W&L in the running.

The girls who've come to dances here.

We've Disliked . . .

The revival of "clique" politics with its several evils and its infiltration into many campus activities and organizations in which it has no place.

The apathy of some students toward administration efforts to aid them in completing their college work and to furnish good openings for them in all branches of the armed services.

The temporarily bad relations with VMI as a result of thoughtless actions on the part of students of both schools.

The tendency of some upperclassmen and freshmen to ignore the speaking and conventional dress traditions.

The lack of interest shown toward some of the most beneficial extra curricular activities on the campus—The Troubadours, debate and public speaking, the International Relations Club and others.

The accelerated program—a hasty step taken early in the war—which most students and faculty members now agree accomplished very little.

Campus Comment

By Ty Tyson and Shabby Davidson

Delta Shelta' Department: The boys over at DTD are pretty proud of their boy "Hoon" Bond. In fact, some of them are amazed, after seeing the latest issue of "The Delt Handbook." Cries of "Did he do that?" and "You mean that guy that wears those suits and has chapter meetings all to himself?" are echoing through the walls of the "Shelta" almost every day now. It seems that the Delts still have a few not-so-innocent freshmen that still don't know who Bond is...and that, brother, is treason.

Of late, however, there has been a rude awakening in "The House That Hoon Built." Even old Al Fuller, who hates everybody, has a smile and a kind word for Brother Bond. Freshmen call Calhoun, "Hoon," and then, blushing hysterically, crawl off into a corner giggling to themselves. Everything is confusion in the mad rush to recognize old "Hoon" and his old achievements.

But, the worst has happened to Brother Bond. It all happened the other night when Boatwright happened to be leafing through a copy of the "Handbook" for the seventh time. There, under the Hurrell photo of old "Hoon" beneath a myriad of other achievements, was a little item that calmly announced, "Treasurer of Delta Tau Delta."

"If Bond's running the house now," thought Boatwright, "the meals can't be as bad as they used to be." So, Bobby started giving the old buildup to La Motte about coming out to the "Shelta" for a meal sometime, and La Motte, as usual, was cynical but tired of eating at the Phi Delt house and, in another weak moment, accepted.

To make a long story short, La Motte went to the Delt house, the meal was brought in and placed on the table. LaMotte choked out something polite to Bond about "How good it looked," the Dels looked at the food and made a mass exodus to the Corner leaving LaMotte, Boatwright and the omnipotent Treasurer Bond to finish the meal in silence.

We wonder ourselves why "Hoon" eats there, now that he's a big shot. Just because a man builds a better mousetrap, it doesn't mean that he has to lie in it... which, of course, is the moral of this story.

Pre-Exam Trivia: One week of exams and all will be over for some and just beginning for oth-

Highlighting the Lexington social whirl—such that it is—is Rubinoff and his violin, playing Thursday at the State. On the screen is Gracie Allen in "Mr. and Mrs. North." Rubinoff will play three concerts; one between shows in the afternoon at about 4 o'clock, and twice in the evening.

Wednesday at the Lyric is the return engagement of Bob Hope's "Nothing but the Truth" with Paulette Goddard. Try to wiggle this one in if you haven't already seen it.

Thursday is "Obliging Young Lady." It's a comedy about a country resort with all sorts of complications and misunderstandings and a bird-lovers convention at which the bird-lovers practice bird-calling. You're bound to laugh at some of the comedy whether out of pity or not...better try Rubinoff at the State.

The long awaited "Kings Row" comes to the State next Monday-Wednesday. Exams will be over then and we guarantee it will put a good taste in your mouth as you reluctantly bid farewell to Lexington—for three weeks, for three months or forever.

Ann Sheridan and Robert Cummings star in this super picture about a small town's intimate affairs. This is truly one of the greatest pictures to date. It's a powerful plot that has many thrilling moments; it's moving and packed with climatic sequences. Don't miss "Kings Row."

Nine to Have 8 Lettermen Back in Harness Next Year

After completing a dismal season of only three wins, the varsity baseball squad is looking forward to next year when eight lettermen will return and the team will be bolstered by several of this year's hard hitting freshmen.

Three members of this year's infield will return: captain-elect Ted Ciesla, Harry Baugher and Ev Schneider, while Carl Johnson, George Eshelman and Paul Cavaliere are the outfield lettermen scheduled to return. The Generals will also have a complete battery with the return of pitcher Jay Cook and catcher Jim Wheaton.

In addition to these returning lettermen, several members of this year's Brigadier squad are counted on to bolster the varsity next season. Sam DiBlasi, who has .475, will give Ciesla plenty of competition for third base. Other freshmen who hit over .300 this season and who will try to earn berths on next year's team are Ken Hovermale, Jack Tucek, Stan Carmichael and Ed Harlan.

The only losses the Bl... will suffer will be Pres Brown and Bob

Athletic Department Plans Summer Sports Program

A program of sports activity "according to the weather and interest" will be undertaken by the W&L athletic department during the summer session, Cy Twombly, director of intramural athletics, announced today.

Although a choice of recreations has not been definitely made as yet, softball, tennis and golf will, in all likelihood, be included in this program, he added.

Teams will probably be divided on a dormitory and fraternity basis, but another plan under consideration calls for dividing the participants into various groups or clubs.

Floyd McKenna Completes Preliminary Naval Service

Floyd Knight McKenna, who held a backfield position on W&L's football team last fall, is among a group of 545 cadets who last week completed preliminary flight training at Naval Reserve aviation bases and reported for advanced training at Corpus Christi, Texas, and Pensacola, Fla., according to an Associated Press dispatch.

McKenna, a native of Lynchburg, is a member of Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity and the "13" Club.

Cavanna, Brown, captain this year, pitched several good games and batted .208. The services of Cavanna, steady hitter and consistent fielder at his first base post, will also be sorely missed. Batting in the cleanup spot most of the season, he was the only team member to hit over .300. Batting averages for this season were:

Cavanna	.333
Baugher	.286
Ciesla	.250
Cook	.216
Brown	.208
Van Buren	.200
Schneider	.184
Johnson	.167

Johnny Ligon Hurls Series of Triumphs For Naval Air Club

Reports from the Jacksonville Naval Air Base, Jacksonville Fla., indicate that Johnny Ligon, former star athlete at Washington and Lee, is continuing his baseball success as pitcher for the sailors. Ligon, a former letterman in football, basketball and baseball for the Generals, left school last fall to enter the Naval Air Corps.

Among his victims, the ex-W&L ace numbers some of the top teams in the minor leagues. He has hurled victories over Baltimore and Jersey City, of the International League; Birmingham, of the Southern League; and Jacksonville and Waycross, of the Atlantic League.

So far, Ligon has gone down to defeat but three times. The Boston Braves earned an 8-4 victory at his expense, while Jersey City and Jacksonville each won return decisions in extra innings.

Ligon's coach is George Earnshaw, who was a star twirler for many years with the Philadelphia Athletics.

ATOs, Phi Kaps, Kappa Sigs Place Two Each on All-Intramural Nine

This year's intramural baseball games have been studded with more outstanding ability than games in previous tournaments, according to Director Cy Twombly. The Ring-tum Phi sports staff along with I-M officials have chosen 22 boys for the All-intramural teams with Phi Kappa Sigma, Alpha Tau Omega and Kappa Sigma leading the first team and Sigma Nu and Pi Kappa Phi carrying away top honors on the second team.

PiKA, Delta Tau Delta, Beta Theta Pi, SAE, Sigma Chi, DU and NFU also placed men on the two teams. Dan Justice, shifty ATO second sacker, and Hank Woods, fiery Beta pitcher, repeated their batting and fielding performances of last year and have been re-named to slots on this season's squad.

The 1942 All-intramural baseball squad is as follows:

Managerships Open to Frosh

The Faculty Committee on Athletics in a meeting last Friday ruled that freshmen will be eligible for managerships in all sports beginning next year. Cap'n Dick Smith, director of athletics, announced yesterday.

In past years no freshmen have been eligible for managerial positions except for spring football. Under this new plan the junior managers who have been selected for 1943 will act as co-managers along with the senior managers. The alternate junior manager will then become the sophomore manager and the incoming freshmen will compete for the remaining vacancy.

This plan is to be inaugurated to assure students a better chance of earning a letter before being called into military service. The rising sophomores, however, will not have a chance for managerships because of the ruling.

There is also a possibility of transferring the W&L-Richmond football game, scheduled for October 31, from Lexington to Richmond, Cap'n Dick added. This is not final, since the University of Richmond officials have not sanctioned the change yet.

Sixteen Students Sign For 1943 Calyx Work

Al Darby, editor-elect of the 1943 Calyx, today named five sophomores, including two photographers, and 11 freshmen who are expected to form the nucleus of his staff next year. Appointment of sub-editors has not yet been made, Darby said.

Sophomores who signed up are Dick Watson, Frank Johnson and Bob Moore; Bill Latz and Jack Hempel, photographers. Returning freshmen will be Holly Smith, Bill Tatgenhorst, Jerry Biddison, Mervyn Dorfman, Bob Goldenberg, Dick Bartlebaugh, Ad Lanier, Howie Gibson, Bill Schindel, Bill Gordon, Jack Crist and Bob Burris.

This group will be augmented by incoming freshmen next fall.

An erroneous statement in the last issue of The Ring-tum Phi implied that Mike's Place, near the local golf course, had closed. This is not the case, and the proprietor of Mike's reports that they are open for business as usual.

Walt Browder, NFU junior from Brooklyn, was elected president of the Lee Dinner Forum at a bi-weekly meeting held Sunday night at the Robert E. Lee Hotel. Browder is editor-elect of the Southern Collegian and vice-president of the Publications Board.

Other officers elected at that time were Bill Noonan, SAE junior from Pensacola, Fla., vice-president, and S. L. Kopald, NFU junior from Memphis, Tennessee.

At the same time, the forum took in Ed Jackson, freshman, and Bob Moore, sophomore, as members, while Ensign William Buchanan, USNR, former editor of the Ring-tum Phi, was also a guest.

Neal Myers gave a paper on "The Race Problem in the South."

Mathis Seeks Commission As Naval Air Lieutenant

Archie Mathis, who recently resigned after 17 years of coaching W&L wrestling teams is awaiting confirmation of his appointment as a lieutenant in navy air corps reserve, by the Navy Department in Washington.

Mathis, who will serve as an athletic instructor, has already had his commission accepted by the V-5 officials. If the commission is ok'd in the next few days Mathis will be placed in the June 15 class at Annapolis for a four week course and then stationed at the University of Georgia in Athens.

Felix Smart, Leo Signaigo, Lynch Christian, Clancy Johnson, and Ken Rippetoe were named to a committee to enforce the summer rushing rules by Jim Walker, president of the Inter-fraternity Council at a meeting of the organization last Thursday.

A committee to register all incoming freshmen next September was also appointed at the meeting, to consist of Jim LaPlante, chairman, Joe Ellis, Earl Alverson, Vernon Millsap, A. L. Cahn, and Jim Daves.

Date cards for the September, 1942 rush week were distributed among the fraternity representatives present at the meeting. The next session of the council has been scheduled for the Sunday before rush week at 8 p.m., Walker said.

Five Journalism Students Get Newspaper Positions

Three graduating majors in journalism have been offered positions on the staffs of nearby daily newspapers, R. M. Hodges, director of the W&L News Bureau, announced today. The small number of appointees is attributed to the fact that most of the seniors are entering the armed forces.

Tom Garten has been placed on the advertising staff of the Charleston Daily Mail, while Marshall Johnson will work for the Lynchburg News. Ned Burks is still undecided among several offers.

Employment on newspapers for the summer has also been obtained for two juniors, Al Darby and Dick Houska.

Three Houses Consolidate For W&L Summer Term

An announcement by the Lambda Chis, Pi Kaps and ZBTs that the three fraternities would consolidate for the summer session, offering rooms and meals at the Lambda Chi house, brought to 14 the number of houses planning to remain open for the summer. Five of these fraternities plan to offer meals also.

The three consolidated fraternities have signed 18 students for the session. A total of 221 students registered two weeks ago for the summer session.

The Phi Kaps, Delts, Kappa Sigs and PiKAs plan to offer both rooms and meals. The eight houses offering only rooms are the ATOs, SAEs, Betas, DUs, KAs, Phi Delts, PEPs and Phi Psis.

The Phi Gams, Sigma Nus and Sigma Chis are not planning to open.

Each Candidate for Degree Will Get Two Guest Cards For Graduation Exercises

Each candidate for a degree will be entitled to two guest cards for the Commencement Exercises, in accordance with a bulletin issued Saturday by the faculty public functions committee.

The tickets may be procured at the Dean's office Monday and Tuesday, May 25 and 26. Students may obtain unclaimed cards on the 26th after 4:30 as long as they last. Candidates are asked to request their guests to be present at the Chapel before 5:45 p.m. on the afternoon of commencement.

An official list of graduates will be posted on the bulletin board by noon Tuesday, May 26. All graduates, in order to receive their degrees with their class, must be present at both the baccalaureate service roll call, 10:30 a.m. Sunday and the commencement roll call, 5:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Students will assemble in academic costume for the procession Tuesday behind Washington Hall with the president and vice-president of each class as marshall.
