McKeldin Speaks In Lee Chapel Tonight

By Dick Anderson

Washington and Lee—the men, their personalities, and their influences on American politics—will share the spotlight with the current political situation as subjects of an address by Governor Theodore R. McKeldin of Maryland at 8:15 p.m. today in Lee Chapel.

McKeldin, who soared into national prominence when he nominated President Eisenhower at the 1952 Republican National Convention in Chicago and became a potential dark-horse candidate for the GOP vice-presidential candidacy, is also scheduled to speak at a banquet of Pi Sigma Alpha, honorary political science fraternity, at 6 p.m.

The Maryland Governor's evening speech will center around the difficulties of living up to the traditions of a great personality, such as Washington or Lee.

However, the current political situation will also be touched upon in McKeldin's address and the ensuing question and answer period, according to Carl Swanson, president of Pi Sigma Alpha, which is sponsoring his talk.

The dinner meeting will be held in the Pine Room of the Mayflower Hotel, and McKeldin is expected to make a few after dinner comments. Student and faculty members of Pi Sigma Alpha and their guests have been invited to the banquet.

Invitations have been sent to all leading Old Dominion Republicans and many party leaders are expected to attend, including Virginia's GOP State Senator Ted Dalton of Radford. The Governor's speech will be covered by Virginia press and radio services.

McKeldin's son is a freshman at W&L, and the Governor will remain in Lexington tomorrow to attend the first annual Parents' Day Program.

Defeats Byrd

The Maryland chief executive has had a meteoric rise to national stature. In November of last year he trounced H. C. ("Curley") Byrd, former President of the University of Maryland, for reelection as Governor. This marked the first time in Maryland history that a Republican had been reelected to that office.

The availability of McKeldin for a higher post in GOP ranks is emphasized by the fact that he is barred by the Maryland Constitution from running for a third gubernatorial term.

His close identification with the Eisenhower wing of the GOP once again marks him as a strong Veep candidate in the '56 convention. He has also been mentioned as possible candidate for one of Maryland's two Senate seats, although both are already held by the GOP.

The Maryland Governor has already indicated his continued support of Eisenhower if he decides to run again and has expressed the desire to renominate him.

Debate Team Downs Bridgewater In Opening Tournament Here

The W&L varsity intercollegiate debate team opened their 1955-56 season Wednesday afternoon by defeating Bridgewater College 2-0 on the subject of the guaranteed annual wage.

The W&L affirmative team of Joe Ripley and Cliff Smith emerged victorious over the Bridgewater negative team by a vote of 37-33. This was the first engagement for both teams and Bridgewater will quite likely meet W&L again Saturday at the Virginia Region TKA Tournament in Williamsburg.

Frosh Show Promise

One of the highlights of the match was the strong showing of the negative team composed of Jere Williams

Conditions for Removal of Beanies Stated

Freshmen will get rid of their beanies if they have a 90 per cent attendance at the pep rally tonight and show a substantial spirit at the game Saturday.

The pep rally will be at 7 p.m. in front of the gym. Coach Charles Harrington will be the speaker. The band will be present.

Keg of Beer

The Freshman Advisory Council is offering a keg of beer to the fraternity which has the best float at the game Saturday. The pledge class presidents are in charge of the floats from each house.

Ted Kerr, head cheerleader, urged that each student attend the game and stay until the last play.

The newly formed Freshman Advisory Council is sponsoring the parade. Officers of this group are Charlie Hurt, president; Bob Fleming, vice-president; and Steve Friedlander, secretary-treasurer.

The purpose of the council is to promote spirit in the freshman class throughout the year.

W&L Lawyers To Face Duke

The regional rounds of the National Moot Court Competition begins today at Chapel Hill, N. C., and will continue through tomorrow afternoon.

Teams from Washington and Lee University, William and Mary, University of Richmond, University of Virginia, Duke University, University of North Carolina, University of South Carolina and Wake Forest College will be present to take part in the competition.

Tonight at 8 p.m., C. J. Baldree, Douglas I. Buck and Edward Ellis will face Duke University in the opening phase of the meet.

Baldree, an intermediate from Melber, Kentucky, and Buck, a senior from Flint Michigan will argue the case in the competition. Ellis, a senior from Miami, Florida, who assisted in the preparation of the brief will be prepared to argue.

The 1955 Moot Court Teams are concerned with a case in which the Petitioner, Leopard Oil Co., charges that Respondent, Superoil Corp., has violated section 7 of the Clayton Anti-Trust Act.

and Bob Shepherd, who were participating in their first intercollegiate debate match. They trounced the Bridgewater affirmative team by a vote of 44-32, and, as a result of this victory, they will debate the varsity negative for W&L on Saturday.

The only other team participating in the meet was the affirmative J.V. team of Rice Tilley and Bill Hughes which lost to an experienced Bridgewater by one point. Hughes received praise from the judge for his debating.

The match, according to Mr. Jack Lanich, faculty debate director, gave the W&L team both an insight into the weakness of their debating and some experience for the upcoming tournament Saturday.

Murder Trial in First Practice Court Session Ends in Hung Jury

There was a hung jury Monday afternoon in the Moot Court room of Tucker Hall.

This was the verdict which the twelve member jury presented to the court following deliberations in the first Practice Court session of the W&L Law School.

The trial concerned a Dr. Bertram Benign (Cliff Smith) who was accused of murder. He allegedly attempted a mercy killing by either administering poison or making it easy for Mrs. Sam Gentry, a cancer victim, to take her own life.

However, the nurse, Miss Catherine Condole, drank the poisoned milk and died while Mrs. Gentry was revived. Dr. Benign stood trial for the murder of the nurse.

Prosecution counsel consisted of Wiley Wright and L. T. Raymond, assisted by Townsend Oast and Bob Mann. Counsel for the defense was composed of Buddy Guthrie, Cliff Swan, and Hank Oder, assisted by Lynn Lummus, Dick Fortson, and Pete Jacobs.

Serving as judge for the trial, which was conducted according to Virginia Law procedure, was Wilson F. Miller, Lexington attorney.

The hung jury consisted of Shirley Driver (Southern Seminary), Nick Seibel, Don Miller, Joe Ripley, Joe Knakal, Charlie Cella, George Milligan, Voigt Smith, Doug Roy (all W&L), Ann Clelend, Aurelia Bravhan (Southern Seminary), and Mrs. Billy Northrop.

George Wilson, chairman of the practice court committee, said that the idea was experimental, but the initial success was proven and it is hoped that such trials will be continued in the future.

A crowd of W&L faculty, Southern Seminary girls, and undergraduate students packed the court room to hear the trial. Witnesses who testified on the stand were Dr. Benign, the defendant; Sam Gentry (Leonard Greenbaum), the cancer victim's husband; Dr. Marcus Mean (Chuck Corn), and Christine Comisarate (Lynn Brinsfield from Southern Seminary) a nurse.

Wilson served as bailiff for the trial, while Frank Shepherd was clerk and Bill Hodges was sheriff.

Opera Will Appear In Lynchburg Soon

"La Boheme," an opera by Puccini, will be presented by the Charles L. Wagner Company in E. C. Glass High School Auditorium in Lynchburg at 8:30 p.m. Nov. 29. This will be the only appearance of the opera west of Richmond in Virginia.

Thomas Martin, who translated the opera into English, will accompany the group and conduct the 25-piece orchestra.

Irene Cummings, making her operatic debut this season with the Wagner Company, will star as Musetta.

Wagner's presentations are sung either in English or in the language in which they are written. By request, the "La Boheme" will be sung in Lynchburg in English.

Wagner has been in the opera business for 50 years. He said in a letter received by a Lynchburg attorney handling the performance, "I bring real grand opera...not decadent vaudeville..."

SWM Promises Combination Treat of Two Campus Bands

By BUCK BUCHANAN and TREV ARMSTRIST

Are your social graces complete? Do you suffer those embarrassing moments due to a lack of musical appreciation? Would you like to have your musical aesthetics enriched?

If you would it will only cost you 75 cents, and all you'll have to do is to drop by the Pine Room of the Mayflower Hotel at 8 p.m. Tuesday when the Southern Collegians and the Shenandoah Stompers give out with a musical lecture. You can cut this lecture, but it wouldn't be advisable since Lexington intellectual circles have been anticipating it for months.

If you find time to wander down the steps of the Pine Room, you'll witness two of the finest jazz bands in Lexington at work. The evening should be fun and SWMSFC feels sure that Lexington's musical appreciation will be increased.

After all, the party is a farewell to Lexington, and doesn't a farewell to Lexington enrich anyone's appreciation?

The bands will play alternately every half-hour, providing continuous entertainment.

The Southern Collegians are featuring a new discovery, Joe Lynn, their pianist. Joe is married and lives in Buena Vista. During the war he had his own army jazz band to entertain the troops.

Last year he played with his own trio at the Greenbrier at White Sulphur Springs and he is now a radio announcer at WREL. The Collegians consider themselves lucky to have him with them.

The Shenandoah Stompers is a new group that was formed only a year ago. It was organized by a group of students who enjoy music and wished to play good Dixie for their own amusement. They have recently played engagements at several W&L fraternities and at the University of Virginia.

Members of the Stompers are Harry Burt on the piano, Joe Lewis plays the cornet, Sam McCain, trombone, John Kendig, clarinet, Frank Ahlgren plays the guitar, and Sid Whipple, the drums. The session will be held from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m.

ZBT, Phi Delt Are on Top in Chest Drive

Zeta Beta Tau leads 16 other fraternities in an early tabulation of contributions to the 1955 Charity Chest Drive sponsored by the Christian Council.

John Arnold, chairman of the drive, said that $254 had been contributed so far by ZBT, followed closely by Phi Delta Theta with $227.50, and Pi Kappa Alpha with $207.

W&L Deans Gilliam and Leyburn and Treasurer Earl S. Mattingly will wait on tables at the fraternity contributing the largest amount, while athletic coaches Dick Miller and Norm Lord will be on duty at the runner-up house.

An average of $4.80 per person was contributed by today's leaders in the chest drive, but the Phi Delt are the only fraternity to show 100 per cent contribution to date, according to Arnold.

The winning house will also receive free tickets from the State Theater for all members of the house, a table tennis set from Pres Brown, a 15 per cent discount on all suits bought at Tolley's Toggery for one week, and a 10 per cent discount on all suits and topcoats bought at Art Silver's for a week.

The highest individual contributor from the winning house will receive a pair of cordovan shoes from Earl N. Levitt.

Arnold commented "as of now, we are running a little bit behind our goal. I realize that some people cannot afford to give as much as others but everyone should be able to contribute something."

W&L Receives $30,000

Washington and Lee was left $30,000 in the will of Arthur Graham Glasgow, millionaire industrialist. The will was filed for probate in West Palm Beach, Fla., this week.

Mr. Glasgow was the brother of Ellen Glasgow, Richmond novelist, and of Mrs. C. C. Tutwiler of Lexington.

Cranston Williams Will Speak To Journalism Group Monday

Cranston Williams, general manager of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, will speak to members of Sigma Delta Chi Monday on the government's monopoly suit against several advertising agencies.

Sigma Delta Chi has invited all interested students and faculty members and townspeople to the talk. The talk will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Payne Hall 6.

Williams was born in Augusta, Ga., in 1895 and spent much of his life in the state working as managing editor of the Americus (Ga.) Times-Recorder and as secretary to Senator W. J. Harris.

Program Is Diversified

Washington and Lee's 1,000 students will take a back seat tomorrow when the University holds its first Parents' Day.

More than 460 mothers, fathers and guardians of 255 students have accepted W&L's invitation to attend the all-day activities and are already beginning to arrive in town. Donald E. Smith, director of University Development, said the response is larger than expected.

Parents' Day activities are planned to bring about a closer understanding of the problems involved in higher education here at W&L, Mr. Smith said.

Included in the day-long program are talks with members of the facul-

Parents' Day Fulfills Part of Development Plans

Five Points Are in Plan

By BILL MILLER

The University in the past five years has undertaken a vigorous five-point program for improvement. This program does not only revolve around the physical improvements, but also it goes into the future plans of the administration for the University.

Physical

The most obvious improvement on campus is the Fine Arts Building which was occupied in April of last year. Departments which share the facilities of the new building include education, fine arts, German, Greek, Latin, philosophy psychology, religion, and some history.

In all, the building has eight classrooms, eleven offices, a small auditorium, a large projection room and facilities for fine arts. Specifically, those facilities for fine arts include two offices, a classroom, a studio, and an exhibit hall, and were made possible largely through the gift of the parents of a student. The cost of the building was $250,000.

During the same five-year period 20,000 books have been added to the University libraries. Many books which have not been catalogued have also been given to the school.

Planned

Besides these physical improvements the University has drawn up a complete blueprint of needed improvements. This blueprint touches every phase of campus life and every academic department in the school.

Among other things the University has done everything possible to raise a scholarship fund for use by students and faculty. As a result the scholarship awards have risen from approximately $40,000 per year to approximately $90,000 a year. To put it another way, this gain represents the realization of about $1,250,000 of a $2,250,000 goal.

In 1949 the school obtained a Fulbright Scholarship Program. Since then 16 graduates whose academic records and promise have made them beneficiaries of this program have received these scholarships to study abroad.

Student

During the same period the students themselves have made many improvements to the University. Washington and Lee's Moot Court team, winner of the regional Moot Court tournament at Durham, N. C., gained greater distinction when it advanced to the semi-final round in the National Moot Court competition. Here it was beaten by Columbia which went on to win the national award.

The W&L Quiz Bowl has had an equally interesting and important rise. In 1953 the team won its first five matches and did not fall until its sixth round. In 1954 the team got off to a bad start losing its first match. This year the Quiz Team won two matches but lost in its third round.

The Debate Team has developed considerably in the same period. Last year, the first year W&L had a full-scale team in many years, the team placed among the top ten debate powers in the nation. It has been organized this year and plans to go to even higher goals.

The University has undertaken to better its relations among its alumni and parents. On May 13 and 14 of last year the school had its first 25-Year Alumni Convocation and Reunion. This reunion was so successful that a 50-Year Reunion has been planned for this year along with the 25-Year Reunion.

A newsletter and alumni magazine are also put out for the benefit of the alumni.

This year the University has organized its first Parents' Day for the purpose of bettering relations with the parents of students. If this affair is as successful as is planned, it will be continued with the support of the Parents Advisory Council from year to year.

Faculty

The University has done everything possible to give the teaching staff more room, better accommodations, and better wages during the same period of improvement.

The John M. Glenn grants in aid totaling $7,100 have been approved by the Board of Trustees and were used by 19 of W&L's faculty members. These grants are designed to provide assistance for research and study purposes, with the object of advancing the caliber of the undergraduate instruction at the University.

Many of the faculty members have written books which have added to the prestige of the school in literary circles. Among those writing books in the last five years are: Dr. Marshall W. Fishwick, Mr. Paxton Davis, and Dr. Charles McDowell.

Progress

Donald E. Smith, director of University development, in connection with the University's record said, "We have had many improvements at the University during the past five years, but we by no means intend to rest on our laurels. We are ever aware of the needs of the University and intend to add improvements both physical and otherwise wherever and whenever possible."

Band and Glee Club Concert Will Be Presented Tomorrow

The Washington and Lee Glee Club and Band will jointly present a concert at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in Doremus Gymnasium.

The Glee Club will perform first starting the concert with a German tune, "Fulgebunt Justi." Following this they will sing "Deaf Old Woman," "My Good Old Man," "As I Ride By" and "What Shall We Do With the Drunken Sailor."

They will also sing a medley of three songs, the same trio presented at the Openings Dance Set concert. They are "You'll Never Walk Alone," "A Fellow Needs a Girl," and "Fine and Dandy."

They will close their section of the program with a selection of W&L songs.

The Band will appear immediately after the Glee Club. They will lead off with a "Melodic Caravan," a composition of semi-popular numbers including "I'm in the Mood for Love."

A new number prepared by the group is "The Yellow Rose of Texas." They will also play a religious hymn, "Hymn of Praise."

Three solo cornets will be featured in "Buglers' Holiday." The band will also play "Green Sleeves," "Golden Eagle March," and various other selected marches.

Both of the groups will be under the direction of Prof. Robert Stewart, music director at W&L.

NATO Offers New Program Of Scholarships

A new scholarship program has been announced by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to further the study of the common traditions, historical experience and present needs of the North Atlantic community.

NATO will sponsor a series of exchanges among the NATO countries in two categories: scholarships and research fellowships.

At the request of the Department of State, the Institute of International Education in New York will assist in the screening and recommendation of American students for the scholarship program. The Conference Board of Associated Research Councils in Washington, D. C., will screen applicants for the research fellowships.

All American candidates will be chosen by the Board of Foreign Scholarships. These candidates will be submitted by the Department of State to NATO's international selection committee which will make the final awards.

Competition in the United States for a limited number of scholarship awards opened Nov. 1 and will close Dec. 1. Candidates who have applied for United States Government foreign study grants under the Fulbright Act may also enter the NATO competition. Awards for the 1956-57 academic year will be announced about April 1, 1956.

Applicants for the NATO scholarships must be United States citizens in good health. Preference will be given to those who are in the field of (Continued on page four)

D. M. Longsdorf Speaks Tomorrow in Psych Class

Daniel M. Longsdorf, personnel director of the Associated Hotels of Atlantic City, will speak to the Industrial and Personnel Psychology class at 9:45 Saturday morning in room 206 in duPont Hall.

Mr. Longsdorf is personnel director for Atlantic City's 17 large boardwalk hotels which have pooled their problems under one office.

He will discuss opportunities in the hotel business and answer personal questions during a discussion period following his address.

Dr. Walter Flick, head of the Psychology department, said that all members of the student body are invited to attend the talk.

See As Much As You Can

We could begin this editorial with the words, "Welcome, parents." But regardless of how sincere such a beginning would be, the phraseology would be trite and the readers might stray. Instead, we'd like to say, "Take a good look, parents."

This is actually the first weekend set aside specifically for the parents of W&L students. A full program has been organized under the able direction of Donald Smith, director of University development and we hope the parents will take advantage of all that is offered.

And even more so we hope the parents will do a little scouting on their own. We'd like them to look at the campus . . . visit with the professors and deans . . . attend classes . . . and look at the students themselves. We want them to listen to what will be said by the student leaders, the administration and professors, the students, and other parents like themselves. We'd like them to look under the surface and see what has been done in the past, what is being done now, and what needs to be done in the future.

We'd like them to do all of this. And we know they will.

The purpose of Parents' Day is to acquaint the parents with the University and its life and problems. So, we'd like to say, "Welcome, parents—welcome and see as much as you can."

'Humor in Painting' Art Exhibit Featured for Parents' Weekend

An art exhibit in the Fine Arts Gallery of duPont Hall entitled "Humor in Painting" has been made available to the attending parents through the efforts of Mr. Christian C. Luhnaw, co-chairman of the Parents' Advisory Council.

The collection is a comprehensive study of how the painter treats humor. Among museums lending the paintings are the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Phillips Memorial Gallery, and the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts.

Thirty humorous paintings featuring contemporary American and 19th century European artists will be exhibited. Of special interest is the original of "The Gossipers" by Norman Rockwell which has been loaned to W&L for the exhibit by the Saturday Evening Post.

Daumier's "Strongman," Horace Day's "Confederate Valentine" and Elizabeth Nottingham Day's "Squirrel Park" will be on display along with works by Peggy Bacon, Doris Lee, Adolph Dehn, Louisa Bosa and Francis di Giogia.

Division of Works

The works are divided almost equally between 19th and 20th century painters with the 19th century painting being predominantly European and the 20th century largely American. The exhibition is broad in scope, ranging from Dourmier and Decamps to Norman Rockwell and from realism to abstract painting.

Rockbridge Concert Set For Monday

A program consisting of three well-known masterpieces has been announced for the concert of the Loewenguth Quartet of Paris here Monday evening.

The concert, scheduled for 8:15 p.m. in Lexington High School auditorium, will be the second event in the tenth anniversary Rockbridge Concert Theater Series.

The program will include Beethoven's Quartet No. 8 in E Minor, Opus 59 (Rasoumovsky No. 2); Schubert's Quartet in D Minor ("Death and the Maiden"); and Ravel's Quartet in F Major.

The four members of the Loewenguth Quartet are Alfred Loewenguth, first violin; Maurice Fueri, second violin; Roger Roche, viola; and Pierre Basseaux, cello.

These four French musicians have been playing together since 1929 when they were all students at the Paris Conservatory, a fact which perhaps explains what critics call their perfection of ensemble.

It is of interest that Loewenguths perform on the only complete quartet of Amati instruments in existence. The two violins, viola and cellos were handmade by Nocolo Amati of Cremona in the seventeenth century.

New Football Era Ends Saturday

Generals Face WV. Tech

By NICK CHARLES

The Washington and Lee football team concludes their 1955 season with a game against West Virginia Tech tomorrow. Due to the good chances for a W&L victory and the parents comin into town for Parents' Day, the largest crowd of the season is expected.

West Virginia Tech boasts a strong team that has lost once and tied once. They lost to Hampden-Sydney in their first game of the season 20-14, but the victory was due mainly to a great deal of Hampden-Sydney luck as the boys from Tech pushed the Tigers all over the field.

Tech is a vastly improved team with a much older club than W&L and should provide stiff competition for the winless Generals. They play out of a split-T and have a very strong running attack that compares to that of Centre College.

A few variations have been added to the Blue and White split-T attack to produce a more open type of offense. This is needed because of the inconsistency of the quarterbacks.

Each of the quarterbacks has different capabilities and Coach Chipley is trying to incorporate them into a consistent offense. These variations should produce the strong attack needed to climax the 1955 season with a victory tomorrow afternoon.

Booters Victim of Terrapins; I-M Wrestling Is Won by Deltas

The varsity soccer team last Tuesday succumbed to a powerful Maryland aggregation, 2-1. The Terps, who had previously beaten North Carolina State, 6-0, and the University of North Carolina, 4-0, were rated heavy favorites over the Generals in this contest.

In the opening minutes of the game, W&L almost scored a goal when left wing Bob Lathrop booted the ball to two of his teammates in front of the Maryland goal, both of whom missed it completely. A subsequent penalty kick by right fullback and captain Jim Lewis gave the Generals their first goal, however.

Maryland evened the game up with a successful scoring attempt in the second period, and in the third quarter the Terps scored what eventually proved to be the winning goal when one of their men broke up a furious scramble in front of the W&L goal by booting the ball in past the W&L goalie.

This contest was one of the most exciting of the season.

The Generals, who now have a 2-5-1 record, will play their last game of the season next Tuesday against the University of Virginia.

Wrestling Intramurals completed its final stages Wednesday night in Doremus Gymnasium with Delta Tau Delta winning the number one spot with 100 points. Second and third respectively were the Kappa Sig with 88 points and the Phi Psi with 75 points. In fourth place was the Beta Theta Pi house with a total of 53 points.

SIDELINES Fable of Doremus Gym, I-M Wrestling Big Topics

By KEITH BELCH

Many, many years ago before Coca-Cola was the rage or before we'd discovered Mrs. duPont, (and long before Ed transferred from Harvard) an affluent old Northern gentleman came South with the intention of finding a small Southern university with which to endow his considerable estate upon his demise. Needless to say he never got past Lexington. Here on this pretty green campus in this lovely valley he ran smack-dab into a student gentleman of such gentlemanly demeanor that he conned the old gentleman right out of a cool one million, seven hundred thousand dollars.

Our kind benefactor was Robert Parker Doremus (how many knew his first name?) and out student intermediary is anonymous. We certainly thank him for his contribution though. What I have set down is fact. I discounted obvious falsehoods like the story that our gymnasium is a brick by brick transposition of a Mongolian Lima's palace or was originally a garage for McCormick's reapers.

After conscientious research I have settled on this as the correct version of a story which has reached the proportions of a fable. One almost feels compelled to begin any mention of our gym's construction with once upon a time. Built in 1915 for one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, the same plant couldn't be duplicated today for a million.

At the time it was the athletic showpiece of the South. I have often wondered if it might not still be so if Mr. Doremus had wandered into our little world about fifteen years later. Of course the story would still have to include a smooth student.

We knock the gym now (myself included) for its age and comparative size, but considering the boisterous activities it was built to house, it has stood the test of time admirably. The only serious attempt to get the wheels in motion concerning a new building was kicked around during the celebration of our two hundredth year in operation but nothing came of it.

There were too many other things

Senior IM Manager Censures Sullivan's Intramural Outburst

Editor, The Ring-tum Phi
The Friday Edition

Dear Sir:

It is most unfortunate when a reporter tries to build up a case but has nothing stronger for a base than trite generalities. To be specific, the article by Mr. Pat Sullivan of Friday last was just such a case.

This gives me the opportunity to state that the intramural program is set up to serve the students who wish to compete but who, otherwise, would have no available outlet. The purpose of the numerous forms which Mr. Sullivan seems to find innocuous is to keep the Fraternity Athletic Directors ever mindful of the fact that in order to have a successful program, we must have continuous participation.

I would like to make it clear that

Holiday
all the Way

More fun on the train...and the gang's all here

Got plans for a grand holiday? Then don't let 'em be ruined by traffic jams or foul-weather delays. Get your homeward bound friends together and make it a holiday all the way... by train! It's tops in transportation... comfortable, roomy and so dependable, with refreshments and delicious meals en route!

Save 25% or More

Stretch your allowance by traveling back home with two or more friends on group coach tickets.* On most trips of 100 miles or more, you each save 25% of the usual round-trip rate. Better still, round up 25 or more to travel long-distance together on the same homeward train. Then return singly or together, and you each save 28% of the regular round-trip fare.

*Except for local travel between New York-Washington and points east of Lancaster, Pa.

See your travel or ticket agent NOW! Ask about these big money saving plans!

EASTERN

When the moon's shining bright
And the party's just right...
To top off the night—have a CAMEL!

—Man, that's pure pleasure!

It's a psychological fact: Pleasure helps your disposition. If you're a smoker, remember—more people get more pure pleasure from Camels than from any other cigarette!

No other cigarette is so rich-tasting, yet so mild!

Mid-Semester Grades

Upperclassmen may pick up their mid-semester grades from their professors Tuesday, Nov. 22. Concerning freshman grades Dean Gilliam said, "Because of the closeness of the end of the mid-semester grading period and the Thanksgiving vacations, grades may not be available to freshmen."

Parents' Day Program

(Continued from page one) Council, Donald E. Smith and Maxwell Caskie, Jr. An art exhibit, entitled "Humor in Painting," opened today and will continue throughout the weekend. From 9 to 10:30 a.m. Sunday and by arrangement tomorrow parents will have an opportunity to speak to members of faculty and administration. Mr. Smith noted that much of the weekend will be left open so the fraternities may have their programs.

Belch's Sidelines

(Continued from page three) to do with our money, and rightly so. We still have a bona-fide auditorium to build and a commons (whether you're pro or con it's inevitable) but with a projected doubling of collegiate enrollment by 1960 we will have to absorb some of it and this calls for enlarged facilities all around. We've just about used up our quota of impressionable strangers and benevolent industrialists. Parents are never out of date and the number remains constant at about double the student body. Between five and six hundred of them are supposed to be spending the weekend with us, enjoying a Saturday luncheon in the aforementioned gymnasium. Be kind and extra polite to parents (anybody's) and forget the adage about lightning in the same place. Something-ought-to-be-done department! I don't like to wag fingers when I have no solution of my own.

Defends IM System

(Continued from page three) the Intramural Department is not averse to constructive criticism. We will be more than willing to answer the question or complaint of any student who will do us the justice of making clear his point. Constructive suggestions for the betterment of the program are also requested. Sincerely, JAMES W. MARVIN, JR. Senior Intramural Manager but the intramural wrestling program this time was a failure. Whereas there was a spirited crowd around the mat on the basketball floor last year, the finals Wednesday night drew just enough to fill the wrestling loft, including participants. One finalist hadn't even wrestled before this "big" match. There were four contenders in most weight classes. When you supposedly have seventeen competing elements you can expect a few more. Whether it's general apathy or too stringent eligibility rules, the Fraternity Athletic Directors should take some action.

WE HAVE won 216 football games and lost 216 since football's inception at this school. This, if nothing else, makes tomorrow important. Speeches, lengthy tirades and admonitions are meaningless. To your parents spirit is probably an integral part of the game. In a sense they paid for the whole works—don't let them or your team down.

NATO Offers Scholarships

(Continued from page two) given candidates with some graduate training. Language proficiency will be essential for placement in non-English-speaking countries. Scholars will be selected on the basis of their scholastic record, the institutions at which they propose to pursue their studies, and their subject of study. Grants will be 500,000

French francs for one academic year of study plus travel expenses. The aim of the NATO fellowship program is to further the idea of an Atlantic Community by encouraging the study group of the historical, political, legal, social, linguistic, economic and strategic problems that will reveal the common traditions, historical experience and present needs of the North Atlantic area considered as a community.

Candidates for the limited number of NATO scholarships should apply to the Institute of International Education, 1 East 67th Street, New York.
