

Parents' Day
Reservations
Exceed 500

The parents of approximately 250 students have made reservations to attend the second annual Parents' Day on Saturday, November 3, the University Development office announced today.

The Development Office expects many more reservations before the October 25 deadline, and it is expected that the total attendance will exceed the 409 of last year.

The parents will register at 2-5 p. m. on Friday, 9-11 a. m. and 12-2:30 p. m. on Saturday.

John E. Larson, chairman of the Parents' Advisory Council will preside at the parents' meeting at 11 a. m. Saturday. President Francis P. Gaines will welcome the parents to the University at this meeting.

Other Addresses

Dean Leon F. Sensabaugh will address the parents for the first time as Dean of the University, and Dean Frank J. Gilliam will discuss various aspects of student life.

Rob Peoples, president of the student body, will also address the group, and Donald E. Smith, Director of University Development, will discuss the development program. An open discussion period will conclude the program.

On Friday at 8 p. m., the Graham-Lee Society will present a dramatic reading, The Importance of Being Earnest, by Oscar Wilde in duPont Hall. At 8:30 p. m. Saturday, the Glee Club and the band will present a concert.

Athletic Events

The parents will get an opportunity to see their sons in action at 2:30 p. m. Saturday when the Generals meet Davidson in soccer, and at 3:15 p. m. when the cross-country team meets Randolph-Macon.

So that the educational aspects will not be overlooked, hours for appointments with members of the faculty have been arranged. Parents may meet the faculty at the following hours: 9-11 a. m., and 2:30-4 p. m. Saturday; 9-10:30 a. m. Sunday.

Guided Tours

The parents may also consult the ministers of the students at the Student Union between 2:30 and 4 p. m. on Saturday.

Guided tours of the campus will leave from Washington Hall at 9 a. m., 10 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and 3:30 p. m. on Saturday. A buffet luncheon will be served in the Doremus Gymnasium at 1 p. m.

The schedule has been so planned that parents will have from 4 p. m. till 8:30 p. m. on Saturday open so they can spend it with their sons.

All hotel reservations and appointment with faculty members are being handled by the Office of University Development.

Three Chosen
For Seminar

The Washington and Lee Seminars in Literature recently selected its three members-at-large in the preparation for its sixth year of activity. Those selected are senior Robert Blair, junior Jerry Abramson, and sophomore Sam Adams.

The Seminars in Literature are sponsored by the Friends of the Library, Graham-Lee Society, Washington Literary Society, and department of English. Representing these organizations are three undergraduates: Tom Litzenberg, Dick Crutchfield, and Max Caskie and three faculty members Dr. Pusey, Dr. Nelson, and Dr. Perry.

Guest Speakers

This committee plans to present two guest speakers in the fall and two in the spring. The general policy of the seminar has been to present speakers in the fields of creative writing, criticism, and teaching. In the past such outstanding personages as Katherine Ann Porter, Elizabeth Bowen, Russell Kirk, and Alfred Kazin have come to W&L through the invitation of the seminar.

The first guest, who will open the nineteenth seminar, will be announced within the next few weeks. There is no charge, and tickets can be procured from Dr. Perry in 24 Payne Hall, or Dr. Pusey in 203 du Pont Hall.

SENATOR JOHN SPARKMAN, Democratic vice-presidential nominee in 1952, will speak at W&L at 2:30 p.m. Monday in duPont Hall.

Informal Speech, Reception
Planned for Sen. Sparkman

Arrangements have been completed for the appearance of Senator John Sparkman (D-Ala.) on the Washington and Lee campus on October 22. His visit is being sponsored by Pi Sigma Alpha political science fraternity.

At 2:30 p.m. Sparkman will give a brief informal address in duPont auditorium. His address will be followed by a discussion period in which students will have a chance to participate.

Immediately following his appearance in duPont Hall there will be a reception held at the Phi Gamma Delta house. Another reception, sponsored by the Rockbridge County Democratic organization, will be held at the Robert E. Lee Hotel at about 5 p.m.

Succeeds Bankhead

Sparkman first appeared on the political scene in 1936 when he was elected U. S. Representative of the 8th Alabama Congressional District. Ten years later he was elected to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Bankhead. In that same election Sparkman had the unique experience of being elected also to the House of Representatives. He immediately resigned from the House and entered upon his duties in the Senate.

Committee Chairman

Senator Sparkman has been given a great deal of responsibility in his relatively short time in Congress, and has continuously worked in numerous fields.

As Chairman of the Subcommittee on low income families he has made significant studies and constantly fought for such measures as fair wages, social security, and unemployment compensation. The Senator is also widely looked to as a leading authority in the field of housing.

Legislation which he has helped author has been responsible for the tremendous home building program since the end of World War II.

Farm Progress

In understanding and working for sound farm programs, Senator Sparkman has been a worthy successor to Senator Bankhead. He is author of the 1949 Farm Housing Act under which farm owners may obtain loans to build or repair their homes and farm service buildings.

As a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee he has been a consistent supporter of the major foreign policy programs in the post-war period, including the Greek-Turkish Aid Programs, the Marshall Plan, the North Atlantic Treaty, and the Military Assistance Program. He has also worked toward maintaining and improving the spirit of bi-partisan ship in foreign affairs.

Council Sets First Theme

"The Magnificent Manifesto" will be the theme of the first several meetings of the Christian Council discussion group.

The group will meet every Tuesday beginning October 23 at 7 p.m. in the Student Union.

A book, "The Unfolding Drama of the Bible" will be distributed to all those attending this opening session, and will be used for reference during the discussion. Freshmen and upperclassmen are invited to attend.

Sprott, Sullivan, Rodriguez
Named to '56 Moot Court

By PAUL PLAWIN

Three intermediate law students were selected Wednesday night to represent Washington and Lee's law school in the regional rounds of the national Moot Court competition at Wake Forest, North Carolina, November 16-17.

Named to the W&L Moot Court squad were Kingswood Sprott, Jr., Patrick D. Sullivan, and Charles Rodriguez.

The three won the competition, which was conducted in the moot court room of Tucker Hall, over five other students on the basis of their court-room conduct and the persuasiveness of their arguments.

King Sprott

Sprott, an intermediate law student from Lake Wales, Florida, is a member of Sigma Nu social fraternity. He was chairman of the Florida delegation in last year's mock convention.

The Burks Competition Award, established some years ago to encourage interest among law students in competitive presentation of oral arguments on appellate briefs, was also presented to Sprott at the close of Wednesday night's activities. The award is named in honor of Martin P. Burks, dean of the Law School at one time and author of Burks' Pleading and Practice in the Virginias.

Pat Sullivan

Patrick Sullivan, an intermediate law student from Lorton, Virginia, is also a member of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity and was associated with the Ring-tum Phi for several years. He is a member of Sigma Chi social fraternity.

The third member of the team, Charles Rodriguez, is an intermediate law student from Dover, Delaware. He is chairman of the Student Bar Association film program and secretary of Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity.

The other participants in moot court were Merrill Trader, Clyde Hobson, S. Laird Harman, Charles Gay, and Mark B. Davis.

The team will travel to Wake Forest College with Noel Copen as chairman. A senior law student from Charleston, W. Va., Copen is a KA and member of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity. He also holds membership in ODK, is editor of the Law Review, and vice-president of the student body.

Large Crowd

The courtroom on the third floor of Tucker Hall was filled to capacity, and the unoccupied jury box and the hall outside the courtroom were filled by the overflow crowd. Noel Copen, chairman of the moot court competition, said it was the largest attendance in the history of the court at Washington and Lee.

The case was argued in the traditional English style courtroom and concerned the pleas of the defense counsel for the life of Carl Young, accused of the murder of Richard Fossick of the F. B. I.

The procedure followed in the case was patterned after what used in the Supreme Court of the United States. The "real-life" case upon which the moot court arguments were based came up for re-trial in the U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia on the same day.

Dr. Gaines Is Named Chairman
Of 1956 School Awards Jury

Dr. Francis P. Gaines was named Wednesday to be chairman of the 1956 National and School Awards Jury of the Freedoms Foundation.

Foundation president Dr. Kenneth D. Wells said that W&L's president will serve as a non-voting chairman of a jury composed of 10 state supreme court jurists, and 20 executive officers of national veterans and service organizations.

Meeting from November 25 through December 1 this panel will select recipients in the foundation's eighth annual $100,000 awards program from nominations submitted by the public.

In past years the Foundation has always selected college or university presidents to head the committee, and past chairmen have included those from California, Temple, Penn State, and the University of Pennsylvania.

Charles Turner Named To
'56 Fulbright Committee

Dr. Charles W. Turner, associate professor of history at Washington and Lee, has been named to serve on the national committee for the selection of Fulbright Scholarship winners.

In a letter from the Institute of International Education, Dr. Turner was asked to assist the State Department in preliminary selection of candidates for graduate study awards.

He will go to New York on December 17 and 18, and again on January 7 and 8 to join the committee in reviewing 10,000 applications for study in the United Kingdom.

Dr. Turner has been chairman of the local Fulbright Committee since its inception in 1948. During that time, over 20 W&L men have received Fulbright Awards.

Action Result
Of Protests

Washington and Lee's Board of Trustees, holding their annual fall meeting here last Friday, authorized the appointment of a special committee to study the crowded plant conditions of the Journalism Laboratory Press.

Dr. Francis P. Gaines said yesterday that he would name the members of this committee as soon as recommendations and a report with regard to the print shop are filed with him by the university architect.

C. Harold Lauck, director of the Laboratory Press, said that the architect had already made a preliminary survey of the shop last week with Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds Douglas Brady and University Treasurer Earl S. Mattingly.

Letter Protested

The action was taken after two W&L students, Russell Ladd, president of Omicron Delta Kappa, and Tom Litzenberg, editor of the Tuesday edition of the Ring-tum Phi, sent a letter protesting print shop conditions to the Board.

Professor O. W. Riegel, head of the journalism department, also presented suggestions for improvement of the shop to President Gaines.

The Friday Edition of the Ring-tum Phi started an editorial campaign for immediate improvements of conditions in the print shop early this fall after announcements were made in two successive weeks that the publication dates of the first issues of two campus publications, the Southern Collegian and the Shenandoah, had to be delayed because of the overcrowded job load in the print shop.

New Plaque

Last year Sam Syme, a former editor of the Tuesday Edition of the Ring-tum Phi, sent a letter to the Board, in which the situation was noted and in which he suggested the erection of a temporary storage shed. No action was taken at that time.

Other actions taken at the Board meeting included the acceptance of a request from the Rockbridge Historical Society to place a plaque on the McDowell House on the W&L campus.

The plaque will be a dedication to the fact that Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, and the poetess Mrs. Margaret Preston, Jackson's sister-in-law, lived in that house at one time or another.

SWM Plans
Sales Program

The Student War Memorial Scholarship Fund Committee will begin its ring sale, open to juniors and seniors, on Monday.

The sale will continue through Friday, October 26. Representatives of the committee will be in the various houses at noontime and at the evening meals.

The schedule for the sales is as follows:

Monday October 22—Sigma Chi, ZBT, PiKA; Tuesday, October 23—Phi Kap, Kappa Sig, Pi Kapp; Wednesday, October 24—Phi Ep, KA, Phi Psi; Phi Delta; Thursday, October 25—DU, SAE, Beta; and Friday, October 26—Delta, Lambda Chi, Sigma Nu, and Phi Gam.

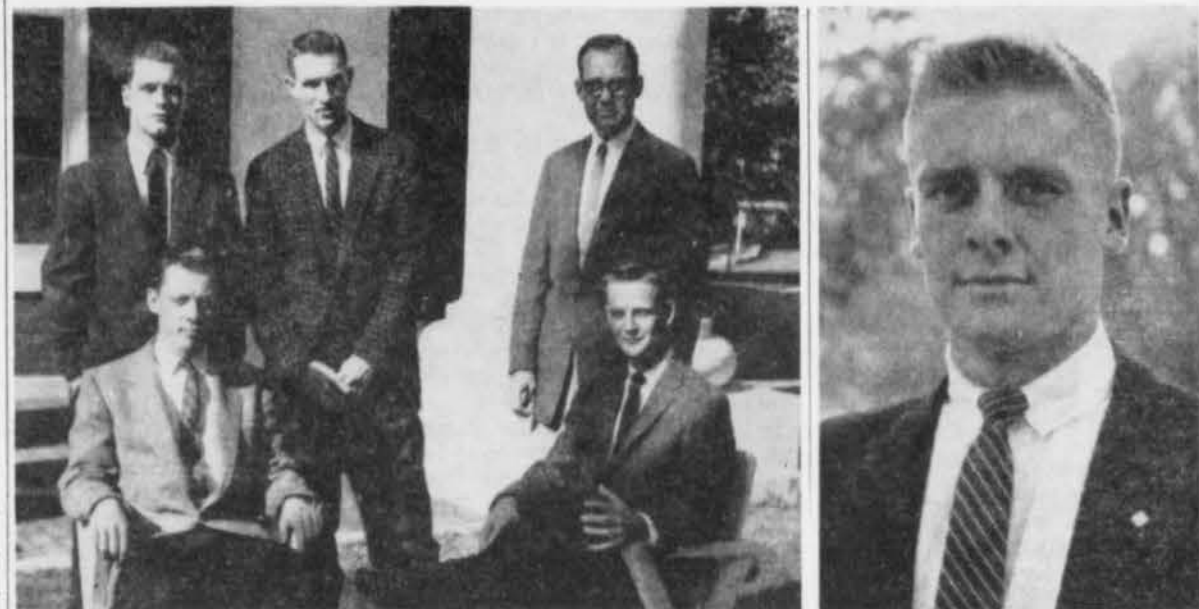

Buck Buchanan, chairman of the committee, stated that "there will probably be no other ring sale campaign this semester. Those desiring school rings should order now if they want the rings delivered before the Christmas vacation."

The ring is 14 carat gold and comes with a variety of stones. On one side of the ring is raised the Washington and Lee University Medalion and on the other is a setting of Lee Chapel, George Washington, and Robert E. Lee.

Each student may make his own choice of stones and may exercise an option regarding other items.

Buchanan urged all students interested in purchasing a ring to see one of the members of SWMSFC during next week.

Southwestern Contest A 'Toss Up': Chipley

By SID WHIPPLE
Forty football players left for Memphis this morning via Piedmont and American Air lines. They should arrive sometime tonight to be cordially received by the Memphis Alumni Club of W&L. Their reception tomorrow should be something less than cordial.

Southwestern, which disappointed its home crowd last Saturday by dropping a 27-13 decision to Centre, will be gunning for the Generals. The Lynx led by a touchdown until the final five minutes when the "Praying Colonels" pushed across three tallies.

Tomorrow is Homecomings at Southwestern and despite Coach Chipley's optimistic views the Generals will have to display more power than they have in their two previous games, for again this week they will not be tangling with "amateurs."

Although Southwestern lost Little All-American halfback Jim Higginson through graduation, the team retained quarterback Billy Young who was named to the Little All-American squad last year as a sophomore. Young ran up 1,007 total yards, passed for eight scores and tallied six himself in 1955.

Also figuring prominently in the Southwestern attack are halfbacks Shep Crigler and John Martin, transfer students from Mississippi State. Crigler is the team's best kicker and Martin led the Lynx scorers with 62 points last season. Rounding out the backfield is fullback Duane Hoover, a transfer student from Georgia Tech.

Chipley Optimistic

Coach Chipley, who hopefully calls the Southwestern game a "toss up," will stay with nine of the eleven who started against Davidson last week. The two new regulars are Don Ferriss who will be substituting for the injured Fred Heina at left guard and aggressive sophomore Pat Reilly at center.

Willie Wright, raring to go after his tangle with the Davidson line last Saturday, will start at quarterback. Jack Daughtrey is nearly recovered from his concussion and should see limited action. Pres Pate will open at left halfback with Corky Briscoe at right half. Game time is 3:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Detering Gains Semifinals In University Tennis Tourney

An unseeded freshman tennis prospect became the first man to gain the semifinals of the University tennis tournament this week. The promising star is Herman Detering, and chances are he won't be overlooked when varsity practice begins in early March.

After a shaky start which cost him the first set, Detering steadied down to defeat Herb Hummers in the quarterfinals, 1-6, 6-3, 6-2. Both contestants had scored upsets in previous rounds.

Detering downed seventh seeded Charlie Hurt in a lopsided first round engagement which saw the returning letterman on the short end of a 6-4, 6-1 score. Hummers had upset varsity captain elect, John Peale, in three sets.

Tom Gowenlock and Kim Wood gained their quarterfinal round brackets as a result of straight set victories over their opponents. Number 4 man on last year's team, Gowenlock permitted Ray White only one game in coasting to a 6-0, 6-1 triumph. Wood prevailed over freshman Dick Hess, 6-1, 6-1.

George Stuart, Mauricio Glauser, Ace Hubbard and Bill Rice, first, second, fifth and eighth seeded players respectively, have not yet completed their third round matches which should have been played off last Monday.

The final round of the tournament was set for tomorrow, but chances are the final match will be later.

Cage Tryouts In Progress

Coach Bill McCann welcomed a squad of 25 players to basketball practice at Washington and Lee yesterday as the Generals began preparations for their fifth campaign under the former University of Virginia star.

Among the candidates are five lettermen, including senior co-captain Lee Marshall and junior Dom Flora, two of the greatest scorers in W&L basketball history.

The Generals, essentially the same team that won 16 and lost 13 in a brilliant late-season surge last fall will be seeking to improve upon last year's disappointing 12-16 mark.

The slate opens December 1 against the University of Kentucky at Lexington, Kentucky.

Soccer Team Sparkles In 3-0 Conquest of Roanoke

Bouncing back from a disappointing 4-1 defeat at the hands of North Carolina last Tuesday, the varsity soccer team yesterday crushed Roanoke College, 3-0.

Roanoke had command of the ball most of the time in the first quarter, firing away unmercifully at W&L goalie Bill Russell. In a scramble around the Roanoke goal post in the latter part of the period, however, Burr Miller got into the thick of the battle and kicked the ball into the goal, sending the Generals off to a 1-0 lead.

Miller's goal was the turning point of the contest. Spurred on by an early commanding lead, the Generals suddenly came to life in the second period and began to demonstrate the hustle and team play that was lacking in their performance against North Carolina.

Burr Miller scored his second goal in this quarter on an assist from Beldon Butterfield. In command of the situation all through the third quarter, the Generals had a number of scoring opportunities, Miller, Butterfield, Warren Nuessle, and Charlie Richardson all taking a crack at the Roanoke goal.

Beldon Butterfield made good his penalty kick in the fourth period.

Runners Face Lowly Spiders

The W&L cross-country team will meet the University of Richmond tomorrow on the Spiders' home field at 10:30 a.m. The Spiders are reported to have two good runners, but the rest of the team is mediocre, a fact which should give the Generals a good deal of encouragement.

Freshman star Bill Loeffler, who was beaten for the first time this season by a fellow teammate last week, hopes to reassert his position as top man on the team. Loeffler was outdistanced by team captain John Arnold.

King Impressive

Another good General prospect for the Richmond meet is senior Charlie King. King has been improving steadily throughout the season and at present is holding down the number 3 spot on the team. Steve Coatz and Joe Stevens will be running in the fourth and fifth positions respectively in tomorrow's meet.

"I'm starved for affection", wailed Sheedy, "but the girls think I'm just a cur. Whenever I paws to talk to one she makes tracks for the tall timber and hides." Football Scholarships Analyzed

(Continued from page two) should be required to conform to regulations of the university and if not should be dismissed, but all athletic scholarships should not be discontinued because of it. If an entire university is at fault then it should be reprimanded publicly.

I feel that now is the time to stop bickering about what's wrong with athletic scholarships and look on the other side: what's right with them—talents are diversified and why should some be accepted and others not?
