

Uncle Muse and Aunt Celce on the lecture

Celce what de matter wid de white folks?

What day growling about. Every body reading de papers seem to be on a pant I just sat down for a moment when I's cutting some wood. When de buss came saying you niggers side you selfs really you are no good. Is flushed up for a moment and didnt know what to do. I thought I'd come to de house and find out from you 2

Why was dis year de president hade a tea it made de white folks mad as day could be and his thing dat happened no body was thinking about Mrs Conger was being a negro and Mrs President Vinton her aunt I cant help thinking about it thats why I'm all in tears by thing dat happens we see de blame if we live a thousand years. seem if day were Christs day would not treat us so but if day all were sinners day couldnt do no more now Celce you know what year talking about I see it just at sight. days reading all in de papers about an awful fight day say at Congerson man twelk we want to go and dime and make a like de white house dats white we have in minde. think ^{say} hear in de white wes bred and burn days ~~at~~ deus ~~in~~ der thing just to blow day harm. Why we arent doing no running jis trying to keep in sight to help put in some party that will treat de ^{Everybody} ~~people~~ right 4 Muse if Democrats and publicans and all other parties ~~are~~ ^{are} mad. Why should day jump on us and say every thing dats bad and de other party knows jis where the publicans stand. Why dont ant ~~heavenly~~ ^{any} more to do with us. ~~Our~~ ^{any} of day hand. day might leave us ant de question before day go in sand. and delunk ant in dis Nation. and make us bear de blame. 5 well love wes always stuck to dem if things were ^{right} ~~wright~~ or no. Why can in de last war our bay had to go. now ~~we~~ ^{we} getting up something else. but de ~~see~~ ^{see} in time. I ant quiter fo-ther the business unless I lose my minds but ^{now} yung folks is vacating

3
