

Juanita C. Jones

Juanita C. Miles Jones, 94, affectionately known as “Ing” who was formerly of 103 Sunnyside St. departed this life Sunday, Sept. 16, 2007 at Loyalton Assisted Living Facility. She was born January 27, 1913, in Brownsburg, a daughter of Charles G. and Ollie (Borden) Miles.

She moved to Staunton at the age of 9 and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in 1932.

She was a member of Augusta Street United Methodist Church and worked with the Methodist women.

During World War II, she worked as a USO hostess. She was employed by the Hunter family for more than 50 years and then by Mary Baldwin College.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Calanthus Linwood “Nannie” Jones, on Nov. 28, 1998; and two sisters, Jenola Lee Miles Jackson and Myra Louise Miles. Juanita was the last of her immediate family.

Survivors include a niece, Gloria R. Wilkins and husband, Aaron, of Palm Coast, Fla; nephew Leonard L. Robinson and wife, Lolita, of Harpers Ferry WV; many great-nieces, and great-nephews; dear friends Barbara Hunter Grant and Charles and Barbara Hunter of Staunton; and many other friends.

A service will be conducted at 11 a.m. Sept. 22, 2007, in the chapel of Kenneth L. Jones Funeral Home. Burial will be in Thornrose Cemetery.

Viewing will be from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sept. 21, 2007.

Professional service is provided by Kenneth L. Jones Funeral Home.

Published by The News-Leader (Staunton, VA) on September 20, 2007.