Dear Sister

Winchester

I received your letter this morning together with Mother's inclosed & will answer both in one. We left our tents on yesterday & came to a house in W 9 & 9 others have the parlor as our room the house has 6 rooms in it & a kitchen with a splendid cooking stove & cooking utensils of the messes have cooks, but ours has not but may get one in a day or so, by the way what became of the code which you promised to send down?

Several of our boys have been quite sick but all are improving John Sighthorn is still delirious but the doctor thinks he will now recover Roberts is quite sick & Watson Woods is in the country & have not heard from him for a week but when we last heard was getting better.

There is a deep snow on the ground about 5 inches & looks like snowing more

The money is a hard fix just now for fact we have been May Kent & this it but when I do you won't call me here again, our old key is worn off, the locking again if you have any to open Kinston money didn't last but know was few if you will send me some I will return to Colgate May Kent to Great Col. it in a short time, I had determined & Cap Pendleton the Chap of the next Chapter needs to write home for money but I guess the auction little spirit in the day have but one old copper I can not get to the amount of May an account of which they had such postage stamps but however, you may remember all the men like him very much & we think that I am extravagant as I wished him to be Col., so now the May is in none plenty but can not get it. command of May Pendleton as Col. however wounded in the middle of December & is not fit for service

We are all enjoying ourselves daily going to see the ladies &c &c you and me to go to see the prettiest girl in the town, the prettiest one & the best is the daughter of a gentleman, would you advise me to go to see her or the richest one of the English who is a Miss Lavers.

I wish to get my books printed but have none of the needed at command I have plenty bound out but can not get the facts from them May Kent & this it but when I do you won't call me here again, our old key is worn off, the locking again if you have any to open little does or tools will do me, but you need not have them very heavy as I do not expect to travel soon, but expect to go into the country business now & to succeed I must have some did I have still a little of my old pride left you see.

Good bye dear
