AT 10 O'CLOCK, PRECISELY,

The Procession (except as hereafter designated) will be formed on the College grounds, in front of the President's House and will move down Washington Street, up Jefferson Street to the Franklin Hall, thence to Main Street, where it will be joined in front of the Hotel by the dignitaries of the State of Virginia and other representative bodies in their order; and by the organized body of the Citizens in front of the Court House. The procession will then move by the road, to the Virginia Military Institute, where it will be joined by the Visitors, Faculty, and Cadets of the Virginia Military Institute in their respective places. The Procession will be closed by the Students of Washington College as a Guard of Honor, and will then move up through the Institute and College grounds to the Chapel.

The Procession will be halted in front of the Chapel, when the Cadets of the Institute and the Students of Washington College will be marched through the College Chapel, past the remains, and will be afterwards drawn up in two bodies on the South side of the Chapel. The remainder of the Procession will then proceed into the Chapel, and will be seated under the direction of the Marshals. The gallery and blocks will be reserved for ladies.

After the funeral services are concluded in the Chapel, the body will be removed to the vault prepared for its reception, and the concluding services will be read by the Chaplain, from the bank on the South side of the Chapel, in front of the vault.
